

Queensland

The Queensland Society's first seminar for 1991 will take place on March 12. The exact time and venue are yet to be determined. The seminar will be conducted by Robert Wensley, Barrister-at-Law, and Mr Archibald Fletcher a solicitor at Henderson Trout who will be presenting a paper on the use of computers in litigation.

The Management Committee Members of the Society for 1991 will be:

President:	Darryl McDonough, Clarke and Kann
Vice President:	Peter Baston, Barrister-at-Law
Vice president:	George Fryberg Q.C., Barrister-at-Law
Secretary:	Mika Hayward, Clarke and Kann
Treasurer:	Ross Blanch, Ernst & Young
Committee Members:	Alan Mason, Pannell Kerr Forster Ian Wilson, Queensland University Tony Morris, Barrister-at-Law George Fletcher, City Solicitors Office Redmond Byrne, Feez Ruthning

---

Victoria

The Victorian Society is in the process of incorporating. The activities for the forthcoming year have not been finalized. A sub-group is meeting in January to discuss possible seminars and speakers. Details of these activities will be published in the next newsletter.

From the Editor's Desk:

The editors would be interested to know if any studies similar to the survey entitled "Computer Literacy: How do Sydney Lawyers Rank?" published on page 10 of the newsletter, have been carried out in other cities.

The deadline for contributions for the next edition of the newsletter is Friday 19 April. Please submit contributions on disk in Microsoft Word or Macintosh Word format together with a hard copy. They should be addressed to

Part 3 of Michael Saunder's article entitled "Computer Systems Contracts" will be published in the next issue of the newsletter.