

TWELFTH MEETING OF THE INTERNATIONAL CONGRESS OF MARITIME ARBITRATORS

PARIS: 24th-28th JUNE 1996

Hosted by Chambre Arbitrale Maritime de Paris

THE THEME FOR THIS CONGRESS IS: "Does the current system of Maritime Arbitration properly serve the interests of the users? Is there a preference that the Courts decide maritime disputes? If not arbitration or Courts – then what ADR may better satisfy users' needs? Mediation, Conciliation, or...?"

CALL FOR PAPERS

ICMA XII will take place in Paris (France) from June 24th to June 28th, 1996. This notice is the official request for delegates to submit the papers they would like to present at the Congress.

As in the past, it will be necessary that the Topics and Agenda Committee receive OUTLINES of intended papers ahead of submission of final paper. While it may be a little early for prospective delegates to decide the topic which they would wish to present, it is necessary that the organisers be given plenty of advance notice of the probable number of papers to be presented.

The OUTLINES, which should be very brief and simply give a breakdown of the content of the intended paper MUST REACH THE CHAIRMAN OF THE TOPICS AND AGENDA COMMITTEE NO LATER THAN NOVEMBER 1, 1995.

The definite time-table for submission of papers to the

Topics Committee will be:

OUTLINES – NOVEMBER 1, 1995

FINAL PAPERS – MARCH 1, 1996

Outlines and final papers should be addressed to the Chairman of the Topics Committee:

Michael A. van Gelder, 493 Wakefield Drive

Metuchen, New Jersey 08840-1626, USA

Fax: (908) 494 0702

Further particulars regarding the Conference may be obtained from:

Secrétaire General, Chambre Arbitrale Maritime de Paris

47, rue de Monceau – 75008 PARIS

Phone: (0033)145 621188 – Fax: (0033)145 62 00 17