

Training Courses

PLANNING PROGRAMMING AND RESEARCH WITH CHILDREN, Cherwell Centre, Oxford, UK, 5-9 October 1998.

This training course is for NGO staff to explore the organisational implications of involving children in planning, programming, needs assessment, monitoring and evaluation.

The training course will be conducted principally by three persons: Jo Boyden, consultant and researcher on child development issues; Roger Hart, author on children's participation in child development and presently Professor of Environmental and Developmental Psychology at the New York City University; and Sue Elliott, co-director of INTRAC with particular experience in organisation development and refugee programmes.

Attendance at this course costs £785 (includes fee, tuition, meals and 4 nights' accommodation.)

For more information, contact: INTRAC - The International NGO Training and Research Centre

Tel: +44 (0)1865 201851

Fax: +44 (0)1865 201852

E-Mail: intrac@gn.apc.org

THINK AGAIN?

For those of you who thought that you had missed out on a FREE copy of Innocenti Digest, No. 2, titled "CHILDREN AND VIOLENCE", think again!

Ring DCI's National Office and we will send you a free copy of this VERY useful discussion paper.

New Publications

UNICEF International Child Development Centre has published an Innocenti Digest on Juvenile Justice focusing on the situation of children and young people who come into contact with the justice system, from their arrest to sentencing. The Digest includes articles on trends in offences committed by juveniles, children's courts, and the reintegration of juvenile offenders. Copies are available by tel: +39 55 234 5258 or emailing: <krigoli@unicef-icdc.it>

The UNESCO International Clearing House on Children and Violence on the Screen has published its first Yearbook on Children and Media Violence. Articles discuss findings on children and televised violence resulting from research from different parts of the world. A number of shorter articles describe the media landscape as it relates to children in a variety of countries. Copies are available by emailing: <nordicom@jmg.gu.se>

Briefing paper from AHRTAG, "Caring with confidence: practical information for health workers who prevent and treat HIV infection in young children"

This Briefing Paper builds on the experience and concerns raised by participants at a recent workshop on AIDS and children held in Zambia, and also an international group of advisers. This paper is intended for health workers, educators, NGOs and those working with community organisations, who are involved with HIV prevention and with the management and care of young children with HIV and AIDS. Copies cost £10 or US$20 including postage from AHRTAG, Farringdon Point 29-35 Farringdon Road, London EC1M 3JB, UK. Contact by tel: +44 171 242 0606, fax: +44 171 242 0041, email: publications@ahrtag.org or Internet: <http://www.ahrtag.org>