

LETTER FROM THE EDITOR:

This is the first of our issues for 1989. We are publishing two articles of interest, one by Augustus Asante Agyemang - The Applicability of Host Countries' Laws to Investment Contracts, an African Case, and one by Metka Stare - The Global System of Trade Preferences, Challenge for Developing Countries. In addition we publish Peter Ford's note on Australia's Human Rights Record and the United Nations Human Rights Committee.

We are also publishing the TABA Arbitration between Egypt and Israel.

It is intended to publish at least one other issue in 1989, in August.

David Flint
Editor.