

year), there was lively discussion of a number of publisher related issues. The Publishers Liaison role of the ALLG is seen as a vital function that we all felt needed our full attention. To that end we intend to meet with all the major legal publishers in the next few months to discuss a number of issues of concern to the ALLG.

Speaking of jam packed, I understand this issue is full of papers from the Symposium in Melbourne and should make interesting reading, so I'll let you get to it.

Anne Gardner

National Convenor ALLG

Ph: (09) 429 7537

Fax: (09) 429 7666

Email: anneg@ibm.net

Old leather bound books rejuvenated!

We are exclusively committed to the cleaning, nourishment and protection of valuable books and without this service they will suffer considerable and irreversible damage.

Many libraries from around Australia have used and testify to our rejuvenation.

For more information contact

LeatherLife

25 Viviani Crescent Heathmont
Victoria Australia 3135
Telephone & Fax 03 9870 0851

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Ms Anne Gardner
National Convenor
ALLG

Dear Anne

I just received the September 1996 issue of the Australian Law Librarian. I thought the issue contained an excellent array of informative articles presented in an attractive fashion. I wish to congratulate you and all the members of the editorial committee on an excellent issue of your national law library publication.

With warm regards

Sincerely yours,

Roy M Mersky

William Stamp Farish Professor of Law and Director of Research
Jamail Centre for Legal Research
The University of Texas at Austin