

Human Rights Law Courses

Online at:

www.law.monash.edu.au/castancentre/units.html

Undergraduate:

Citizenship and Migration Law

Comparative Constitutions and Rights

Human Rights and Australian Law

International Law

Indigenous Peoples and the Law

International Human Rights

International Organisations

International Refugee Law and Practice

Law and Discrimination

Law, Gender and Feminism

Graduate:

Current Issues in International Human Rights law

Human Rights in the Global Economy

Human Rights Litigation

Indigenous Rights and International Law

International Humanitarian Law

Law, Gender and Feminism

Migration Law

Native Title and Land Rights

Practising in the Public Interest

 Not all courses are offered by the Law Faculty each year.*

Student Placements

Assoc Prof Beth Gaze in her Law and Discrimination course and Dr Sarah Joseph in her International Human Rights Law course both offer undergraduate students the opportunity to take part in a Student Placement scheme. Further information can be found in the Law Faculty handbook at:

www.monash.edu.au/pubs/handbooks

Advanced Professional Practice Unit

A Human Rights Unit will be run in 2004 in the Advanced Professional Practice subject coordinated by Assoc Prof Adrian Evans. This will involve students working with Melbourne law firm Holding Redlich on pro bono cases of interest. For further details contact: Assoc Prof Adrian Evans on 03 9905 5501.

Student Internships

The Castan Centre helps to facilitate human rights related international internships for Monash Law students.

Key schemes with which the Centre is involved include:

- Reprieve Australia – provides Monash law students with the opportunity to work with Reprieve lawyers in the USA on death-row cases. These are three month internships that usually take place over the main University break.
- Australian Delegation to the UN Commission on Human Rights – A six-week internship program with the Australian delegation in Geneva (usually over March-April).
- Australian Red Cross International Humanitarian Law Summer Internships – Two-week, project-oriented voluntary internships run out of the ARC HQ in Melbourne.

More information on these and other human rights internships is available online at:

law.monash.edu.au/castancentre/internships

Coming out in August 2004

Corporations and Transnational Human Rights Litigation

Sarah Joseph

Hart Publishing

Available through www.hartpub.co.uk