

Index

Abolition

monarchy, of, 45

Access to information

protection of provisions of State constitutions concerning, 18

Adjudication

adversarial and bipolar nature of process, 234

description of process, 214-15

polycentric problems, susceptibility to solution by, 215, 220-3

Administrative Appeals Tribunal

policy, jurisdiction to take account of matters of, 122-3

Administrative decision-making

adjudication, susceptibility of polycentric problems to solution by, 215, 220-3

bipolar decisions, impact of, 213

criticism, direct, of officials, 90

deflection of ministerial responsibility to officials, 89-90

ministers

power to direct or influence, 94-101

supervisory role over departments and agencies, 94-101

nullity, administrative decision making reviewable for, 142, 146

polycentricity in administrative decision-making, 213-40

concept of polycentricity, 214-23

degrees of polycentricity, 219

justiciability and polycentric problems, 223-31

procedural fairness and polycentric problems, 231-8

what is a polycentric problem, 215-17

review of see Judicial review; Nullity

Administrative law

extra-parliamentary forms of accountability, 88-9

legality, principle of, 105-7

nullity see Nullity

Agreements

jurisdiction, as to, where enforceable under common law and Brussels/
Lugano Convention regimes, 261-3

Amendment

hasty, of State legislation see Protection of State legislation

manner and form of legislation, provision regulating, 23

Appeals

null decisions, from, whether allowable, 143

vexatious litigants

appeal, right of, from order, 293

appeals by, 283-4

Arbitration

- international disputes, of, 243
- "internationalism", growing influence on law of, 241-2

Armed forces

- Governor-General, role as Commander in Chief, 50, 55

Asylum seekers

- procedural fairness, judicial review of cases concerning, 207

Auditor General

- extra-parliamentary form of accountability, as form of, 88
- ombudsman, jurisdiction in respect of, 134
- protection of provisions of State constitutions concerning, 18

Australia Act 1986

- amendment by State Parliament, 30
- repeal by State Parliament, 30
- validity, 42-3
- view, narrow, of scope of s 6, 18

Australia Post

- ombudsman, review of complaints arising from commercial activities of, 125-6

Australian Broadcasting Corporation

- ombudsman, power to investigate journalistic matters, 124-5

Bankruptcy

- federal revenue, removal of priority in, 140
- ombudsman, jurisdiction in relation to, 125
  - investigation of complaints concerning administration of bankrupt's affairs, 116
- removal of Crown's priority in, 140

Brussels Convention

- application and effect, 244-5
- foreign judgments, recognition and enforcement under, 268-70
- forum non conveniens, consistency of doctrine with system, 248-9, 263
- immovable property, comparison of rights in rem under common law and Convention regimes, 265-8
- infringement of intellectual property rights, "torpedoing" holder's means of redress, 267
- lis pendens, comparison of common law and Convention regimes where foreign proceedings pending, 263-5
- Lugano Convention, relationship with, 245

Cabinet

- decisions, judicial review of, 90-4
- executive power exercised by, 82
- individual, right to put case to, 93
- Ministers see Ministers
- political nature of sanctions against, 94
- power of members, 82
- secrecy, as feature of responsible government, 86
- solidarity, as feature of responsible government, 86

Certificates

conclusive “Crown privilege” certificates, 140

Certiorari see Prerogative writs

Cigamatic case

critique of reformulation, 14-16
 Dixon theory, 3-7
 practical effect, 1

Common law

international Conventions, comparison with see Jurisdiction; Private international law
 procedural fairness as common law duty, 196, 197

Commonwealth

binding effect
     common law, of, 1-17
     State law, of, 1-17
 capacities, distinction from exercise of capacities, 10-13
 Constitution see Commonwealth Constitution criminal provisions, application by State to, 13
 exercise of capacities by, 10-13
 immunity, constitutional, from State law, 1-17

Commonwealth Constitution

acknowledgement of role of ministers by, 94
 amendment by referendum, 19
 Dixon theory, 3-7
 High Court, re-examination in Henderson’s case, 7-10
     rule of law, 13-14
 ministers, constitutional requirement to be members of Parliament, 85
 non-justiciability of ss 53, 54 and 56, 25, 28
 parliamentary government, provisions regulating structure and operation, 83
 procedural fairness, constitutional role and function of Chapter III courts, 195

Computer technology

e-commerce, where contract made under, 260
 internet, where contract made by businesses using, 260

Constitutions

Commonwealth see Commonwealth Constitution
 State see State Constitutions
 writs, constitutional see Prerogative writs

Consumers

consumer contract, expansion of notion, 259
 jurisdiction in cases involving, comparison of common law and Brussels/Lugano Convention regimes, 259-60 validity of jurisdiction agreements in consumer contracts, 262

Contract law

consumer contract, expansion of notion, 259

Contract law (cont)

- e-commerce, where contract made under, 260
- internet, where contract made by businesses using, 260
- jurisdiction, comparison of common law and Brussels/Lugano Convention regimes, 255-7
- service outside Australian jurisdiction in cases concerning, 255-7

Contracting-out

- privatisation of government activities, effect on jurisdiction of ombudsman, 132-3

Contractors

- government, power of ombudsman to deal with complaints against, 132-3

Conventions

- Exclusive Choice of Court Agreements, release of Draft Convention on, 243
- Hague Conference, 1999 Draft Convention on Jurisdiction and Judgments, 243
- Jurisdiction and Enforcement of Judgments in Civil and Commercial Matters, 1968 Convention on see Brussels Convention
- Jurisdiction and Enforcement of Judgments in Civil and Commercial Matters, 1988 Convention on see Lugano Convention
- Recognition of Foreign Arbitral Awards, United Nations Convention on, 243

Copyright

- validity and infringement of unregistered rights, appropriate forum for proceedings, 265-6

Costs

- orders, removal of Crown's immunity from, 140

Courts

- adjudication by see Adjudication
- competence, institutional, to determine cases involving matters of public interest, 225
- High Court power to review superior federal courts, as example of nullity theory, 147
- judicial review see Judicial review
- ombudsman, review of actions of judicial bodies, 114-17, 133
- procedural fairness, constitutional role and function of Chapter III courts, 195

Crime Commission (NSW)

- ombudsman, jurisdiction in respect of, 134

Crown

- abolition of monarchy, 45
- equality between state and subject see Nullity
- estoppel, Crown immunity from doctrine of, 165-6
- immunities, erosion or removal of see Nullity
- protection of provisions of State constitutions concerning, 18
- vice-regal representatives see Governor-General; Governors

Defamation

forum, place of tort and place of damage, 257

Director of Public Prosecutions

ombudsman, investigation of complaints against action by, 116
 protection of provisions of State constitutions concerning, 18

Discovery

removal of Crown's immunity from, 140

Discrimination bodies

ombudsman, jurisdiction in respect of, 134

Dismissal

activism of vice-regal representatives, 44
 Whitlam Government, of, 54

Domicile

corporations, of, 254
 jurisdiction based on, comparison of common law and Brussels/Lugano Convention regimes, 253-5

Electoral Commissioner

ombudsman, jurisdiction in respect of, 134
 protection of provisions of State constitutions concerning, 18

Electoral redistribution

protection of provisions of State constitutions concerning, 18, 20

Employees

employment contracts, validity of jurisdiction agreements in, 262 government, review by ombudsman of complaints against, 130-2 jurisdiction in cases involving, comparison of common law and Brussels/Lugano Convention regimes, 259-60 exclusive jurisdiction agreement, proceedings in breach of, 261-2 public service employment decisions, jurisdiction of ombudsman to review, 134

Enforceability

judicial, and legal validity, distinction, 25
 sources and limits of, 28-33

Enforcement

foreign judgments, recognition and enforcement of, 268-70
 Brussels Convention, recognition and enforcement under, 268-70
 Lugano Convention, recognition and enforcement under, 268-70
 public policy defence, 268-9

Error

jurisdictional see Jurisdiction

Estoppel

Australian position, summary, 182-3
 Canada, role of public law estoppel in, 180-1 cause of action, not, 163
 common law, 164
 conduct, by, doing the minimum equity, 164-5

Estoppel (cont)

- Crown immunity from doctrine of, 165–6
- effect of, 163–4
- equitable, 164
- evidence, as rule of, 163
- existing state of affairs, limitation of private estoppel to, 162–3
- functus officio, principle of, and, 174
- legitimate expectation, doctrine of, 175–80
  - Canada, in, 180–1
  - protection of expectations, 179
- private law estoppel, 161–2
  - unification of principle in, 160–1
- promissory, 162, 163
- public bodies, application to, 165–7
- public law, place in, 160–83
- rule of evidence, as, 163
- statutory discretions, in context of, 168–73
  - representations about past performance of, 173–4
- statutory duties, in context of, 167–8
  - representations about past performance of, 173–4
- substantive law, as principle of, 163
- unified doctrine of, 164
- United States, role of public law estoppel in, 181–2

Evidence

- estoppel as rule of, 163

Executive

- federal courts, exercise of functions reposed in, 225
- primacy of legislature, and judicial intervention with, 104

Family law

- “internationalism”, growing influence on, 241–2
- ombudsman, investigation of complaints against Family Court counselling staff, 116

Federal Courts

- High Court power to review superior federal courts, as example of nullity theory, 147

Federalism

- concept of, 5
- mutuality, as involving, 17

Finance bills

- protection of Senate, purpose of s 55 of Constitution, 28
- requirements, special, as to manner or form, 24

Foreign judgments

- recognition and enforcement see Private international law

Forum non conveniens

- Brussels Convention, consistency of doctrine with system under, 248–9, 263
- Lugano Convention, absence of doctrine from system, 247–8, 263
- tort cases, effect of Australian doctrine on jurisdictional issues, 258–9

Fraud

enforcement of foreign judgment procured by, 269

Freedom of information

extra-parliamentary form of accountability, as form of, 88-9 ombudsman, review of decisions relating to applications under legislation, 136

Functus officio, principle of

estoppel and, 174

Government

business enterprises, competition with private sector counterparts, 140 contractors, power of ombudsman to deal with complaints against, 132-3 employees, review by ombudsman of complaints against, 130-2
 equality between state and subject see Nullity
 estoppel, Crown immunity from doctrine of, 165-6 executive, protection of provisions of State constitutions concerning, 18
 ombudsman, power to review actions of see Ombudsman resignation, core principle of responsible government, 84 responsible accountability and responsibility, distinction, 89
     ancillary features, 86-7
     collective responsibility, 86
     principle underpinning governmental structures, 83-4
 Westminster system, key elements of, 84

Governor-General

Australian people, as representative of, 55
 ceremonial role, 54-7
 community role, 54-7
 conventions governing role of, as feature of responsible government, 86 evolving role of, 44-58
 government legality, policing, 51-4 governmental functions, 50
 head of state and British Ambassador, combination of roles, 48
 lawfulness of executive action, discretion to determine, 51-4
 monarch's power to appoint and dismiss, 46
 mutual dismissibility of Prime Minister and, 47
 nationality, 49
 non-political head of state, importance of, 56
 non-reserve powers, 50
 original role, 45-8
 remuneration, 57
 representative of Queen, as, 48-9
 republic debate, impact on office of, 45
 reserve powers, 50
     ministerial advice, power to refuse to follow when exercising, 53-4 resignation, 45
 role post 1926, 48-50
 security of tenure, 46

Governors

- activism of vice-regal representatives, 44
- judicial review of Governor in Council, 91
- ombudsman
  - referral of matter by, 128
  - review of actions of, 134
- remuneration, 57
- republicanisation of office, 45

Health Complaints Commissioner

- ombudsman, jurisdiction in respect of, 134

High Commissioners

- Australian, appointment to London, 48
- British, arrival in Australia, 48

High Court

- nullity theory, power to review superior federal courts as example of, 147

Human rights

- adoption of instruments to express and protect, 105

Immigration

- procedural fairness, in judicial review of cases concerning, 207

Independent Commission against Corruption (NSW)

- ombudsman, jurisdiction in respect of, 134

Indigenous peoples

- reconciliation with Australia's, activism of Sir William Deane, 56

Insolvency see Bankruptcy

Intellectual property

- foreign rights, jurisdiction in respect of Australian action concerning, 265
- infringement of rights, "torpedoing" holder's means of redress, 267

International treaties

- Exclusive Choice of Court Agreements, release of Draft Convention on, 243
- Hague Conference, 1999 Draft Convention on Jurisdiction and Judgments, 243
- Jurisdiction and Enforcement of Judgments in Civil and Commercial Matters, 1968 Convention on see Brussels Convention
- Jurisdiction and Enforcement of Judgments in Civil and Commercial Matters, 1988 Convention on see Lugano Convention
- legitimate expectations arising from ratification of, 189
- separation of powers, consistency with doctrine, 190
- Recognition of Foreign Arbitral Awards, United Nations Convention on, 243

Judges

- appointment of federal, non-reserve powers of Governor-General, 50
- interpretation of law, monopoly of judiciary on, 104
- ombudsman, review of actions of judicial bodies, 114-17

Judgments

- foreign, recognition and enforcement of, 268–70
  - Brussels Convention, recognition and enforcement under, 268–70
  - Lugano Convention, recognition and enforcement under, 268–70

Judicial review

- Cabinet decisions, of, 91–4
- decisions not recommendations, of, 112
- Governor in Council, of, 91
- ministerial responsibility and, 82–109
  - criticism of doctrine, 86
- ministers, of decisions of, 112
- nullity
  - extensions beyond nullity, 146–7
  - role of nullity in broadening access to, 142, 146
  - without nullity, effect, 146–7
- polycentric problems and justiciability, 223–31, 239
- procedural fairness and see Procedural fairness
- separation of powers doctrine, 103
- variable standard of, 108–9

Judiciary Act 1903 (Cth)

- amendment of s 64, 3
- application of s 64, 1–3
- repeal, of s 64, 3
- scope of s 64, 1–3

Jurisdiction

- agreements as to, where enforceable under common law and Brussels/Lugano Convention regimes, 261–63
- consumers, comparison of common law and Brussels/Lugano Convention regimes, 259–60
- contract cases, comparison of common law and Brussels/Lugano Convention regimes, 255–7
- domicile, comparison of common law and Brussels/Lugano Convention regimes, 253–5
- employees, comparison of common law and Brussels/Lugano Convention regimes, 259–60
- foreign intellectual property rights, jurisdiction in respect of Australian action concerning, 265
- French Civil Code, assumption under Art 14 of jurisdiction based on nationality, 246
- German law, assumption of jurisdiction based on ownership of property, 246
- Mozambique rule, justiciability of actions involving title to or trespass on foreign land, 265
- multiparty proceedings, comparison of common law and Brussels/Lugano Convention jurisdictional requirements, 260–1
- nullity, and “jurisdictional error”
  - Administrative Decisions (Judicial Review) Act, three review grounds under, 146
  - attacks on notion of, 145
  - declaratory and injunctive relief, and, 146
  - indeterminacy of, 148

Jurisdiction (cont)

- ombudsmen, of see Ombudsman
- presence, comparison of common law and Brussels/Lugano Convention regimes, 253–5
- private international law, reform of Australian law by, 241–71
  - “multi-jurisdictional” adjudication, problems in resolving, 242
  - uniform system, need for, 242–3
- residence, comparison of common law and Brussels/Lugano Convention regimes, 253–5
- tort cases, comparison of common law and Brussels/Lugano Convention regimes, 255–7
- vexatious litigants, want of inherent jurisdiction to prevent bringing future legal proceedings, 275–7

Lam Case, 184–212

- expectations and fairness, High Court approach to relationship between, 187
- explanation of decision, applying Brennan approach, 206–7
- ratification of international treaties, effect of, 189
- threads in, 185–90

Law

- content of legislation, investigation by ombudsman of complaint concerning, 121
- legal proceedings, international case law and provisions as to meaning, 282–3
- legality, principle of, 105–6
- legally binding, meaning, 25
- legislative instrument, definition, 119
- private international see Private international law
- rule of, Dicey’s view, 139
- State see State law

Legal aid

- ombudsman, investigation of complaints concerning, 116

Legal Services Commissioner (NSW)

- ombudsman, jurisdiction in respect of, 134

Legislation

- assent to, non-reserve powers of Governor-General, 50

Legitimate expectation, doctrine of

- estoppel and, 175–80
  - Canada, in, 180–1
  - protection of expectations, 179
- procedural fairness and, 184–212
  - attribution of expectation, 191–2
  - criterion treatment as, 198
  - meaning of legitimate expectation, 190–1
  - role of, in procedural fairness, 207–8
  - substantive expectations, scope for judicial enforcement of, 188
  - utility of legitimate expectation, 190–1, 210

Lis pendens

jurisdiction, comparison of common law and Convention regimes where foreign proceedings pending, 263-5

Local government authorities

ombudsman, jurisdiction to review activities of, 118-19, 136

Lugano Convention, 241-71

amendment of terms, 245-6

Australia, and, 244-6

benefits of Australian accession to, 246-52

Brussels Convention, relationship with, 245

costs of Australian accession to, 246-52

EU countries as parties to, 245

foreign judgments, recognition and enforcement under, 268-70

forum non conveniens, absence of doctrine from system, 247-8, 263

immoveable property, comparison of rights in rem under common law and Convention regimes, 265-8

infringement of intellectual property rights, "torpedoing" holder's means of redress, 267

jurisdictional law, impact on, 252-68

lis pendens, comparison of common law and Convention regimes where foreign proceedings pending, 263-5

signatories, 244

Majority

absolute, deliberative or casting vote of presiding officer, 23-4

special, in Parliament, as provision regulating manner and from, 23

Mandamus see also Prerogative writs writ of, in case of ministerial refusal to intervene, 100-1

Marquet's case

facts, 19-20

legal and policy issues, 19-22

reflections on, 18-53

validity and enforceability, sources and limits of, 28-31

Mediators

ombudsman, jurisdiction to review actions of, 134

Members of Parliament

Ministers, requirement to be, 85

ombudsman, referral of constituents' complaints by, 128

Migration Review Tribunal

ombudsman, power to investigate complaints against, 118

Ministers

administrative officials

deflection of responsibility to, 89-90

power to direct or influence, 94-101

supervisory role over departments and agencies, 94-101

appointment, non-reserve powers of Governor-General, 50

collective responsibility, 86

direction, powers of, 101-2

Ministers (cont)

- dismissal, non-reserve powers of Governor-General, 50
- extra-parliamentary forms of accountability, 88-9
- members of Parliament, requirement to be, 85
- ombudsman, jurisdiction to review actions of, 133
- political activities, reconciliation with other responsibilities, 99
- powers, 83
- refusal to intervene, effect, 100-1
- resignation, for misconduct or mistakes, 87-8
- responsibility, ministerial, and judicial review, 82-109
  - criticism of doctrine, 86
- separation of powers doctrine, 103
- solidarity to government policy, as form of control over, 83

Natural justice rules

- denial of, as defence to action for enforcement of foreign judgment, 269
- flexibility of, 148
- procedural fairness see Procedural fairness

Nullity, 139-59

- administrative decision making reviewable for, 142, 146
- appeals from null decisions, whether allowable, 143
- bankruptcy, removal of Crown's priority in, 140
- bundle of legal consequences, as, 142-3
- certiorari, effect of quashing decision, 143, 146
- coercive orders, eroding of Crown immunity from, 140
- common law presumptions as to statutes not binding on Crown, removal of, 140
- conclusive "Crown privilege" certificates, 140
- costs orders, removal of Crown's immunity from, 140
- degrees of, 144
- discovery, removal of Crown's immunity from, 140
- equality between state and subject, principle of, 141
- government privileges, felling of, 140
- High Court power to review superior federal courts, as example of nullity theory, 147
- improper purpose and bad faith, removal of Crown's immunity from review for, 140
- insolvency, removal of federal revenue's priority in, 140
- judicial review
  - extensions beyond nullity, 146-7
  - role of nullity in broadening access to, 142, 146
  - without nullity, effect, 146-7
- "jurisdictional error"
  - Administrative Decisions (Judicial Review) Act, three review grounds under, 146
  - attacks on notion of, 145
  - declaratory and injunctive relief, and, 146
  - indeterminacy of, 148
- legislating for validity, 154-8
- "mandatory" or "directory" provisions
  - conclusory distinction, 145, 148
  - statutory purpose, use to explain nullity, 147-9

INDEX

natural justice rules, flexibility of, 148
Parliament
    conflict with courts in case of legislative attack on judicial review, 151-3
    legislating for validity, 154-8
prerogative power, removal of immunity from judicial review, 140
prerogative writs
    legislating for avoidance of remedies, 1545
    renaming as constitutional writs, 141
    role of nullity in cases, 142
    validity of legislative deadlines for access to, 144
relativity, shift towards, 142-6 self-correction, power of decision-makers to treat decisions as null, 149-50 statutory authority, counteraction of defence of, to intentional torts, 146
statutory purpose, use to explain nullity, 147-9
tort actions
    damages for imprisonments based on null decisions, 143
    relief from administrative illegality, vehicle for securing, 141
    removal of Crown's immunity from, 140
"void" and "voidable", popularity of terminology, 144-5

Ombudsman

abrogation of jurisdiction by privative clauses, 135
action, as subject-matter of complaint to, 111-12
administration, review of matters of, 113-14
    policy and administration, distinction, 121-4 agencies, argument as to what actions to be regarded as administrative, 124-5
Auditor-General, jurisdiction in respect of, 134 bodies whose actions are subject to review, 128-9 contracting-out of government activities, effect on jurisdiction, 132-3 courts, review of actions of judicial bodies, 114-17, 133 delay in acting within reasonable time, complaint of, 113 discretion no to review decisions, 135 discrimination bodies, jurisdiction in respect of, 134
electricity regulators, jurisdiction in respect of, 134 employees and office-holders, review of complaints against, 130-2 establishing Acts of offices of, 110
extra-parliamentary form of accountability, as form of, 88
failure to act, as subject-matter of complaint to, 112 freedom of information legislation, review of decisions relating to applications under, 136 Governor
    referral of matter by, 128
    review of actions of, 134
Health Complaints Commissioner, jurisdiction in respect of, 134 individual officers, review of complaints against, 130-2 judicial bodies, review of actions of, 114-17
jurisdiction of Australian Government, 110-38
    abrogation by privative clauses, 135
    discretionary grounds for refusing, 135

Ombudsman (cont)

- jurisdiction of Australian Government (cont)
  - exceptions from, 133-5
  - expansion of, 136-8
- local government authorities, jurisdiction to review activities of, 118-19, 136
- mediators, jurisdiction to review actions of, 134
- ministers, jurisdiction to review actions of, 133
- model for resolution of complaints, use in private sector, 110-11
- non-judicial persons, review of judicial activity by, 117-18
- oversight of compliance with statutory requirements, role in, 111
- own motion investigations, 127-8
- Parliament
  - jurisdiction of ombudsman to review activities of, 118-19, 133
  - referral of matter by, 128
- police
  - controlled operations, oversight role of ombudsman, 137
  - role in resolving complaints against, 136
- policy, jurisdiction to investigate complaints concerning, 121-4
- private sector bodies, jurisdiction over, 132
- privatisation of government agency, jurisdiction to review after, 132-3
- protection of provisions of State constitutions concerning, 18
- public service employment decisions, jurisdiction to review, 134
- recommendations, power to review, 112
- state, bodies whose actions are subject to review by, 128-9
- telephone interception, supervision of procedures for issue for warrants for, 136-7, 138
- transit police and railway constables, jurisdiction in respect of, 134
- tribunals as subject of complaint to, 133-4
- types of actions reviewable by, 111-13
- whistleblowers, request for assistance from, 136
- witness protection programs, review of decisions affecting persons under, 137

Orders

- coercive, eroding of Crown immunity from, 140
- costs orders, removal of Crown's immunity from, 140
- vexatious litigants, discretion to make orders restraining, 292-3

Parliament

- dissolution, reserve powers of Governor-General, 50
- nullity
  - conflict with courts in case of legislative attack on judicial review, 151-3
  - legislating for validity, 154-8
- ombudsman
  - jurisdiction to review activities of, 118-19, 133
  - referral of matter by, 128
- opening, ceremonial role of Governor-General, 54
- presiding officers, nature of vote, 23, 25
- primacy of legislature, and judicial intervention with executive, 104
- protection of provisions of State constitutions concerning, 18
- quorum in each House, requirements for, 23

INDEX

State, power to control future legislative procedures, 20, 30
summoning, non-reserve powers of Governor-General, 50

Patents

infringement of registered rights, appropriate forum for proceedings, 265–6

Police

controlled operations, oversight role of ombudsman, 137
ombudsman, role in resolving complaints, 136

Popular sovereignty

certiorari, effect of quashing decision, 143, 146
theory of Kirby J, 22

Prerogative writs

certiorari, effect of quashing decision, 143, 146
nullity
    legislating for avoidance of remedies, 154–5
    renaming as constitutional writs, 141
    role of nullity in cases, 142
    validity of legislative deadlines for access to, 144

Presence

jurisdiction based on, comparison of common law and Brussels/Lugano Convention regimes, 253–5

Prime Minister

appointment, reserve powers of Governor-General, 50
dismissal, reserve powers of Governor-General, 50
head of state, assumption of functions of, 57
mutual dismissibility of Governor-General and, 47

Privacy Commissioner (NSW)

ombudsman, jurisdiction in respect of, 134

Private international law

Brussels Convention
    application and effect, 244–5
    foreign judgments, recognition and enforcement under, 268–70
    forum non conveniens, consistency of doctrine with system, 248–9, 263
    immoveable property, comparison of rights in rem under common law and Convention regimes, 265–8 infringement of intellectual property rights, “torpedoing” holder’s means of redress, 267
    lis pendens, comparison of common law and Convention regimes where foreign proceedings pending, 263–5
    Lugano Convention, relationship with, 245
Exclusive Choice of Court Agreements, release of Draft Convention on, 243
Hague Conference, 1999 Draft Convention on Jurisdiction and Judgments, 243
“internationalism”, growing influence of, 241–2

Private international law (cont)

- jurisdiction of courts, reform of, 241–71
  - “multi-jurisdictional” adjudication, problems in resolving, 242
  - uniform system, need for, 242–3
- Lugano Convention, 241–71
  - amendment of terms, 245–6
  - Australia, and, 244–6
  - benefits of Australian accession to, 246–52
  - Brussels Convention, relationship with, 245
  - costs of Australian accession to, 246–52
  - EU countries as parties to, 245
  - foreign judgments, recognition and enforcement under, 268–70
  - forum non conveniens, absence of doctrine from system, 247–8, 263
  - immoveable property, comparison of rights in rem under common law and Convention regimes, 265–8
  - infringement of intellectual property rights, “torpedoing” holder’s means of redress, 267
  - jurisdictional law, impact on, 252–68
  - lis pendens, comparison of common law and Convention regimes where foreign proceedings pending, 263–5
  - signatories, 244
- recognition and enforcement of foreign judgments, 241–71
  - disparity between national laws, 242
  - essay by Professor Campbell, 241
  - uniform system, need for, 242–3

Privatisation

- government agency, of, ombudsman’s jurisdiction to review after, 132–3

Procedural fairness see also Natural justice rules

- bipolar dispute, requirements in case of, 235
- breach, alleged, of, 191–5
  - excess of jurisdiction resulting from, 196
- common law duty, as, 196, 197
- condition implied by common law on exercise of statutory power, as, 196–7
  - nature and terms of condition, 203
- constitutional role and function of Chapter III courts, 195
- content of, proper role of courts in determining, 195–204
- duty to accord, 231
- failure by decision-maker, necessity to establish breach of condition, 199–203
- implication from statute, as, 196
- “instrumental” approach of High Court, 194
- Lam* case, 184–212
  - expectations and fairness, High Court approach to relationship between, 187
  - explanation of decision, applying Brennan approach, 206–7
  - ratification of international treaties, effect of, 189
  - threads in, 185–90
- legitimate expectation and, 184–212
  - attribution of expectation, 191–2
  - criterion treatment as, 198

INDEX

- estoppel, relationship with doctrine of, 175–6
  - meaning of legitimate expectation, 190–1
  - role of, in procedural fairness, 207–8
  - substantive expectations, scope for judicial enforcement of, 188
  - utility of legitimate expectation, 190–1, 210
  - onus lying on party seeking to establish breach, 193
  - polycentric problems and, 231–8
  - “practical fairness”, reduced content of concept, 208–9
  - prohibition, whether writ lies in respect of breaches of procedural fairness, 195–7
  - separation of powers, bearing on availability and effect of procedural fairness as ground of review, 195–7, 204
  - terrorism and security, robustness of principles necessary in climate of concern, 208
  - third parties, existence of duty to notify and hear, 233–4
  - unjust policies, value where used to apply, 207
  - what fairness requires, 191–5
    - adverse effect on opportunity to be heard, 194
    - detrimental reliance, whether necessary, 192
- Prohibition see also Prerogative writs
- procedural fairness, whether writ lies in respect of breaches, 195–7
- Promissory estoppel see Estoppel
- Property
- immoveable, comparison of rights in rem under common law and Convention regimes, 265–8
- Protection of State legislation
- Marquet’s case*
    - facts, 19–20
    - legal and policy issues, 19–22
    - reflections on, 18–53
  - requirements as to procedure or form, 18–53
    - bindingness, 25–27
    - enforceability, 25–33
    - manner and form proviso in Colonial laws Validity Act, 19
    - reforming current constitutional arrangements, 38–9
    - requirements as to manner and form, redundancy of s 6 AA, 34–8
    - validity, 25–33
    - variety of requirements as to procedure or form, 23–5
- Public interest
- competence, institutional, of courts to determine cases involving matters of, 225
- Public policy
- enforcement of foreign judgment contrary to local, 269
- Public service legislation
- acknowledgement of role of ministers by, 94
- Quorum
- judicial inquiry into, as violation of parliamentary privilege, 28

Quorum (cont)

- requirements as to, whether justiciable, 26–31
- validity and enforceability, sources and limits of, 28–31

Ranasinghe's Case, principle in, 21

Referendum

- abolition of monarchy, to achieve, 45
- manner and form of legislation, provision regulating, 23

Refugee Review Tribunal

- ombudsman, power to investigate complaints against, 118

Refugees

- procedural fairness, in judicial review of cases concerning, 207

Remuneration

- exorbitant, of holders of vice-regal office, 57

Repeal

- hasty, of State legislation see Protection of State legislation
- manner and form of legislation, provision regulating, 23

Republic debate

- monarchists' campaign arguing about identity of head of state, 56
- office of governor-general, impact on, 45
- popular sovereignty, as polity based on, 58

Reserve powers

- activism of vice-regal representatives in exercising, 44

Residence

- jurisdiction based on, comparison of common law and Brussels/Lugano Convention regimes, 253–5

Review

- judicial see Judicial review
- ombudsman, by see Ombudsman

Separation of powers doctrine, 103

- federal courts, exercise of functions reposed in executive government, 225
- formalistic view of, 104
- ombudsman, effect on jurisdiction of, 113–14, 115
- procedural fairness as ground of review, bearing on availability and effect, 195–7, 204
- ratification of international treaties, consistency of legitimate expectations with doctrine, 190

Service of process

- outside jurisdiction
  - contract cases, 255–7
  - tort cases, 257–9

Social Security Appeals Tribunal

- ombudsman, power to investigate complaints against, 118

State Constitutions

- parliamentary government, provisions regulating structure and operation, 83
- requirements as to procedure or form, 18–53
  - bindingness, 25–27
  - enforceability, 25–33
  - manner and form proviso in Colonial Laws Validity Act, 19
  - reforming current constitutional arrangements, 38–9
  - requirements as to manner and form, redundancy of s 6 AA, 34–8
  - validity, 25–33
  - variety of requirements as to procedure or form, 23–5

State law

- Commonwealth, binding effect on, 1–17
- constitutions see State constitutions
- discrimination against Commonwealth by, 11
- immunity, constitutional of Commonwealth from, 1–17
  - Dixon theory, 3–7
  - High Court, re-examination in Henderson’s case, 7–10
  - rule of law, 13–14

Succession

- “internationalism”, growing influence on law of, 241–2

Supreme Court

- protection of provisions of State constitutions concerning, 18, 21

Telecom

- ombudsman, review of complaints arising from commercial activities of, 125–6

Telephone interception

- ombudsman, supervision of procedures for issue for warrants for, 136–7, 138

Terrorism

- procedural fairness, robustness of principles necessary in climate of concern, 208

Tort actions

- damages for imprisonments based on null decisions, 143
- jurisdiction, comparison of common law and Brussels/Lugano Convention regimes, 257–9
- relief from administrative illegality, vehicle for securing, 141
- removal of Crown’s immunity from, 140

Trademarks

- infringement of registered rights, appropriate forum for proceedings, 265–6

Transit police

- ombudsman, jurisdiction of, 134

Tribunals

- ombudsman, as subject of complaint to, 133–4

Trusts

“internationalism”, growing influence on law of, 241–2

Unfair competition

validity and infringement of unregistered rights, appropriate forum for proceedings, 265–6

Validity

legal, and judicial enforceability, distinction, 25

Vexatious litigants

appeal, right of, from order, 293

appeals by, 283–4

Attorney-General (NZ), role of, 294–7

controlling persistently, 272–300

discretion to make order, 292–3

genesis of English Act concerning, 272–5, 277

human rights dimension of proceedings concerning, 297–300 inherent jurisdiction to prevent bringing future legal proceedings, want of, 275–7

interlocutory applications by, 283–4

legal proceedings, international case law and provisions as to meaning, 282

meaning of vexatious, 285–7

mental illnesses underlying actions of, 300

New Zealand legislation concerning, 277–300

Judicature Act 1908 (NZ), application and purpose of s 88A, 279–300 persistently bringing proceedings, as element of test, 290–2 reform of provisions concerning, 299–300

scandalous allegations by, 287–8

types of conduct characterising, 289

without any reasonable ground, as element of test of vexatious proceedings, 289–90

Whistleblowers

ombudsman, request for assistance from, 136

Witness

protection programs, review by ombudsman of decisions affecting persons under, 137

Writs

constitutional see Prerogative writs