

Index

- Adams, John, 195
- Administrative Appeals Tribunal establishment of, 185
- Administrative law
 exceptionalism of Australian, 176, 185 judicial review see Judicial review new constitutional, 185
 United Kingdom, in, 177–8
- Adversarial system
 truth and, 229, 235–8
 civil law inquisitorial systems and, 241–8
- Alder J, 189
- Alexy, Robert, 189
- Allan, Trevor, 180, 186
- Allison, JWF, 180
- Anderson Legal, 13
- Appeal
 Australian courts, to Judicial Committee of Privy Council from, 260
- Australia
 judicial review, Australian solutions, 184–8
 New Zealand and, shared tradition, 177
- Bacon, Francis, 233–4
- Bar
 independent and competent, and public administration of justice, 1–3, 7–17 modern, state of, 1–3, 7–17
 Multi Disciplinary Practices, impact on, 3, 12–15 technology, emerging, impact on, 2–3, 11–2
- Barwick, Sir Garfield, 49
- Bennett, David AC QC, 5, 175
 Solicitor-General, as Commonwealth, 218
 2010 Sir Maurice Byers Lecture, delivery by, 218–28
- Bills of attainder retroactive laws and, 34–6
- Blackburn, Justice Richard, 49
- Brennan, Hon Sir Gerard Brennan AC KBE, 175
 legalism, strict, and Brennan Court, 56–8
- Bybee, JS
 torture, and memorandum justifying, 175, 232
- Byers, Sir Maurice CBE QC, 60, 102–3, 175, 195, 217, 260 advocacy of, 74, 230 excellence in, 23, 48
 Australian Constitutional Commission, chairman of, 24, 107, 195, 260
 Bar Association Annual Report 1982, 280–3 barrister, as quintessential, 1, 4–5
 Bench and Bar Dinner 1994, speech given at, 292–9 career, distinguished, 4, 23 constitutional vision, 195–7 eulogy, 300–3 judiciary, advocate’s view of, 284–91
 obituary, by Tom Hughes, 304–5
 Solicitor-General of Commonwealth, as, 91, 98, 107, 282 stature of, 133–6
- Cab-rank rule, 10, 14–5
- Canada
 judicial review, unreasonableness as standard of, 187
- Cane, Peter, 185
- Certiorari
 non-jurisdictional error of law, availability to correct, 183
- Chevron* doctrine, 100–2
- Choper, Professor Jesse, 209
- Civil law
 inquisitorial systems, adversarial systems and, 241–8
- Common law
 Australia, single common law of, 194 rights, statute law and, 88, 96
- Commonwealth
 federal balance, 212–6
 legislative power, broad reach of, 212–3

- Commonwealth (cont)
 - States and
 - institutional functionaries, as, 206
 - responsibilities, overlap between, 211
- Constitution
 - Chap III, Judicature, 24–5
 - detention, right to freedom from, 20, 21, 38–9
 - equal application of federal law, right to, 20, 22, 39–41
 - usurpation of judicial power, right to protection from, 20–1, 32–8
 - due process
 - entrenchment of procedural rights guaranteeing, 19–21, 25–8
 - procedural protections afforded by, 19, 25–6
 - procedural right, definition, 19
 - substantive rights, distinction, 25–6
 - substantive, 42
 - substantive rights, recognition or protection of, 20, 30–41
 - top-down legal reasoning and, 79–80
- Chap IV, Finance and Trade, 127
- Chap V, States, 127
- conventions, constitutional, 107–8
- evolving concepts in, 46
- federal constitutionalism, 98
- federation, statement of purpose of, 203
- fundamental constitutional doctrines, assumption in, 72
- interpretation, constitutional, 44–65
 - foundation document, where judicially enforceable written constitutions, 44
 - legalism, strict, 45, 169–71, 201–2
 - Brennan Court, 56–8
 - Dixon Court, 50–2
 - Gleeson Court, 58–63
 - Mason Court, 52–5
 - policy-oriented court, and, 63–5
- Jubilee of Australian Constitution, celebration of, 207
- judicial power
 - constitutionally derived constraint, as, 192
 - deference, judicial, giving way to judicial vigilance, 214–6
 - legislative power, broad reach of
 - Commonwealth, 212–3
 - political system
 - accountability, political, and constitutional means of restraining governmental power, 211
 - cardinal features, 204
 - precedent, and doctrine of, 216
 - responsible government, and meaning at end of 19th century, 205
- Royal Assent to, 260
 - structure and function, vision of, and development premised on, 191–217
 - elements, critical, of structure, 204
 - political accountability, text and structure of Constitution and fundamental premise of, 192
 - resolutions of Australasian Federation Conference of 1890 and, 203
- theories of interpretation, 129–71
 - ambulatory words, 146–7
 - centre, circle and, 150–2
 - common law approach, 169
 - connotation, detonation and, 145–6
 - core, penumbra and, 150–2
 - evolutionary nature of legal expressions, 147
 - expansive construction of powers, not prohibitions, 168–9
 - founders, and actual intentions of, 152–4
 - interpretivists, 97–9
 - literalism, theory of, 169–71
 - living force, Constitution as, 156–8
 - living tree, Constitution as, 158–9
 - modern conditions, workable Constitution in, 163–5
 - 1900 meaning, essential and non-essential elements of, 147–50
 - non-originalist theories, 129, 154–68
 - thoughts on, 165
 - originalist theories, 129, 136–54, 191, 199–201
 - slavery, generality of language as means of avoiding, 160–3
 - textual, and strict, 169–71
- trial, Constitutional guarantee of right to fair, 28–30

- United States, interpretation of prohibition of cruel and unusual punishment, 44
- Control orders
 - striking down, 20–1
- Conventions
 - constitutional, 107–8
- Cooke, Sir Robin, 184, 186
 - unreasonableness, approach to, 187
- Co-operative federalism, 62
- Courts
 - Australian, appeals to Judicial Committee of Privy Council from, 260
 - federal, implied prohibition on State jurisdiction being vested in, 120
 - parliament and, presumption governing relationship between, 89
- Craig, Paul, 180, 188
- Davis, Kenneth Culp, 177–8
- De Smith, SA, 172, 177
 - judicial review, description of scope, 178
- Deakin, Alfred, 61
- Detention
 - Constitution, Chapter III and substantive right to freedom from, 20, 21, 38–9
 - immigration, 21–2
 - involuntary detention rule, and Kruger v Commonwealth, 39
- Dicey, 61, 70, 180, 186
- Dixon, Sir Owen, 70, 75–6, 175, 198, 287
 - legalism, strict, and, 45, 50–2, 64, 68
 - section 92 Constitution, view of, 73
 - truth seeking, view of, 233–4, 239, 248
- Drafting
 - legislative, process of, 89
- Due process
 - Constitution Chapter III and entrenchment of procedural rights guaranteeing, 19–21, 25–8
 - substantive, 42
- Dworkin, Ronald, 180
- Eldon, Lord, 17
- Elias, Rt Hon Dame Sian, 172
 - 2008 Sir Maurice Byers Lecture, delivery by, 172–90
- Ely, Professor John Hart, 209–10
- Equality
 - Constitution Chapter III, and right to equal application of federal law, 20, 22, 39–41
- Eskridge, William, 181, 189
- European Convention on Human Rights
 - European Court of Human Rights, distinction from European Court of Justice, 256
 - European Union, accession to, 258
 - living instrument, as, 262
 - ratification by United Kingdom, 256, 261
 - signatories to, 256
 - style, civilian, 258
 - threat of withdrawal of United Kingdom from, 259
- European Court of Human Rights
 - European Court of Justice, distinction from, 256
 - jurisdiction, 258
- European Union
 - European Coal and Steel Commission as first incarnation of, 257
 - European Court of Justice, jurisdiction, 257–8
- Evans, Gareth MP, 5–7
- Evidence
 - archaic law of, 239–41
 - eyewitness testimony, research on, 251–2
- Ewens, Mr QC, 91–2
- Executive power
 - aliens, and power to prevent entry of, 106
 - High Court, limits placed on exercise of, 193
 - implications, and powers deriving from Commonwealth's existence as a polity, 126
- Extrinsic materials
 - use of, 99–100
 - utility of, 89
- Federalism
 - constitutionalism, federal, 98
 - politics of, 207
 - state jurisdiction, implied prohibition on being vested in federal courts, 120
 - United States Constitution, and design of, 208

- Federalism (cont)
 working, and existence of States as governmental entities, 208–9
- Fees
 contingency, public policy and, 2
- Fredman, Sandra, 181
- Free speech right, 106
 responsible government, implication from doctrine of, 70–1
- Freedom of communication implied, on political and government matters, 123–5 responsible government, and efficacy of system of, 70–1
- Freedom of information legislation administrative reforms and, 182
- French, Chief Justice
 legalism, strict, and High Court of, 45
- Gageler, Hon Justice Stephen, 191
 Solicitor-General, appointment as Commonwealth, 191
 2009 Sir Maurice Byers Lecture, delivery by, 191–217
- Gibbs, Sir Harry, 6, 49
- Gleeson, Chief Justice, 7, 10
 legalism, strict, and Gleeson court, 45, 58–63
- Gray, Rachel, 68
- Griffith, Chief Justice
 judicial power, definition by, 25
- Gummow, Hon Justice WMC AC, 6, 88
 2005 Sir Maurice Byers Lecture, delivery by, 88–106
- Harlow, Carol, 186
- Hart, Professor HLA, 218, 221
- Heydon, Hon Justice JD AC, 129
 2007 Sir Maurice Byers Lecture, delivery by, 129–71
- High theory
 middle theory and, 81
- History
 legislative, relevance of, 89
- Hoffman, Lord, 14
- Hughes, Tom, 4
 obituary by, 304–5
- Human dignity, 182
 concept of, 180
- Human rights
 European Convention on Human Rights
 European Court of Human Rights, distinction from European Court of Justice, 256
 European Union, accession to, 258
 living instrument, as, 262
 ratification by United Kingdom, 256, 261
 signatories to, 256
 style, civilian, 258
 threat of withdrawal of United Kingdom from, 259
 European Court of Human Rights
 European Court of Justice, distinction from, 256
 jurisdiction, 258
Human Rights Act
 decisions of Strasbourg Court, and requirement to take into account, 262–79
 introduction of, 261
- Iconoclasm
 meaning, 220
- Immigration detention, 21–2
- Implications, 70–2
 assumptions and, 73, 78
 Australian constitutional law, theories of implication in, 111 conceptual, 104
 constitution, of, 104–28
 characteristics, 108–11
 definition, 107
 interpretation of constitution, and principles of, 125 judicial power, from nature of, 121 responsible government, implication from doctrine of, 70–1 rule of law, possible implications arising from, 121–2 structural, 104, 114–20
 textual and, distinction, 71
 textual, 104, 114
 State jurisdiction, implied prohibition on being vested in federal courts, 120
 structural, distinction, 71

- Interpretation
- Constitution, of, 132
 - ambiguity, and need for, 145
 - Australasian Federal Convention, and Official Record of Debates of, 141–5
 - extrinsic materials, 141–5
 - history and meaning, relationship between, 140–1
 - O'Connor J, approach to, 136–7
 - private law theory, identical, of construction, 137–8
 - statutory principles of construction and, 138–9
 - heads of Commonwealth power, concerning, 108
 - implications, and principles of interpretation of constitution, 125
 - literalistic approach to construction, and purposive approach, 226
 - purposive, use of, 89, 92
 - theories of constitutional, 129–71
 - ambulatory words, 146–7
 - centre, circle and, 150–2
 - common law approach, 169
 - connotation, detonation and, 145–6
 - core, penumbra and, 150–2
 - evolutionary nature of legal expressions, 147
 - expansive construction of powers, not prohibitions, 168–9
 - founders, and actual intentions of, 152–4
 - literalism, theory of, 169–71
 - living force, Constitution as, 156–8
 - living tree, Constitution as, 158–9
 - modern conditions, workable Constitution in, 163–5
 - 1900 meaning, essential and non-essential elements of, 147–50
 - non-originalist theories, 129, 154–68
 - thoughts on, 165
 - originalist theories, 129, 136–54
 - slavery, generality of language as means of avoiding, 160–3
 - textual, and strict, 169–71
 - involuntary detention rule, 39
 - Ipp, Justice David, 249, 253
 - Jackson, DF QC, 104
 - 2006 Sir Maurice Byers Lecture, delivery by, 104–6
 - Judicature
 - administrative decisions, power to review
 - for jurisdictional error, 19–21, 45–6
 - bias, disqualification for, 19
 - Constitution Chap III, 24–5
 - judicial power
 - Commonwealth, of, 24
 - definition, 24–5, 28, 31
 - exercise, control of, 28
 - implications from nature of, 121
 - reasons, requirement to provide, 19
 - Judicial review
 - Australian solutions, 184–8
 - centrality, in pluralistic society, 172
 - certiorari, availability to correct non-jurisdictional error of law, 183
 - challenges ahead, 188–90
 - culture wars and, 189
 - illogicality as separate ground for, 174
 - irrationality as separate ground for, 174
 - jurisdictional error, 174
 - justification, and culture of, 179
 - legality, 185
 - merits review and, maintaining distinction, 182
 - policy and facts and, distinction, 186
 - regard to principle of, 173–4
 - legitimate expectations, and concept of, 174
 - merits review
 - establishment of system, 185
 - legality and, maintaining distinction, 182
 - natural justice, 179
 - political process, and primacy of, 210
 - procedural fairness, 174
 - proportionality analysis, 187
 - substantive review, developing standards for, 186
 - substantive unfairness and concept of, 174
 - ultra vires rationale, 179
 - unreasonableness as standard of, 187

- Jurisdiction
 - constitutional, power of State to confer on Privy Council, 120
 - State, implied prohibition on being vested in federal courts, 120
- Jury
 - right to trial on indictment by, 26, 46
- Justice
 - blind, 254–5
 - business of, and public administration of, 1–3
 - unjust application, 221
- Kable* doctrine, 20–1, 24, 36–8, 45, 48, 69, 79, 104
- Kirk, Dr Jeremy, 55
- Koh, Dean Harold, 175
- Law
 - role of, played in pluralistic societies, 181
 - social conditions, mediation and explanation, 182
- Legal representation
 - implied right to, 28–30
- Legalism, 201–2
 - strict, 45, 169–71, 201–2
- Legality
 - judicial review and, 185
 - merits review and, maintaining distinction, 182
 - policy and facts and, distinction, 186
 - regard to principle of, 173–4
- Litigation funding
 - public policy and, 2
- Loftus, Elizabeth, 253–4
- Macaulay, Thomas Babington, 50
- MacCormick, Neil, 181, 182
- Mason, Sir Anthony, 7, 287
 - eulogy by, 300–3
 - legalism, strict, and Mason Court, 45, 52–5, 68
- Mason, Justice Keith AC, 66–90
 - 2003–2004 Sir Maurice Byers lecture, delivery by, 66–90, 180
- McClellan, Justice Peter, 231, 249, 253
- McCullough, David, 195
- McHugh, Justice MH AC
 - career, 18
 - 2001 Sir Maurice Byers Lecture, delivery by, 18–43, 64
- Memory
 - truth and
 - facts lost by reason of, 248–54
 - problems with, 250–1
- Merits review
 - establishment of system, 185
 - legality and, maintaining distinction, 182
- Mitchell, Dame Roma, 286
- Multi Disciplinary Practices
 - Bar, impact on, 3, 12–5
- Natural justice, 179
- New Zealand
 - Australia and, shared tradition, 177
 - Bill of Rights, and equality before the law, 188
 - judicial review
 - proportionality analysis, 187
 - substantive fairness, 188
 - unreasonableness as standard of, 187
 - Maori, litigation by, 181
- O'Connor, Justice, 134–5
 - constitutional interpretation, approach to, 136–7
- Parliament
 - courts and, presumption governing relationship between, 89
 - legislative judgement, 32–6
 - parliamentary sovereignty, sacrosanct nature of, 174
 - State legislatures, and power for review for jurisdictional error, 193
 - usurpation of judicial power by, 20–8, 32
 - bills of attainder, retroactive laws and, 34–6
 - Kable* doctrine, 20–1, 24, 36–8
- Partridge, Percy Herbert, 207–9, 211
- Pearce, Senator George, 134–5
- Perkins, Charlie, 229
- Politics
 - judicial review, and primacy of political process, 210
- Pollock, Sir Frederick, 95–8
- Poole, Thomas, 189
- Posner, Richard, 182, 201

- bottom-up reasoning, explanation of, 73–4, 82–5
- top-down legal reasoning, formulation by, 66–7
- Pro bono work, 9–10
- Procedural fairness, 174
- Procedural protections
 - Constitution, afforded by Chapter III, 19, 25–6
 - procedural right, definition, 19
 - substantive rights, distinction, 25–6
- Purposivism
 - purposive interpretation, use of, 89, 92
- Reasons
 - requirement to give, and administrative reforms, 182
- Responsible government
 - federation, and meaning at end of 19th century, 205
 - sovereignty, and importance of, 205–6
- Robertson, Alan, 6
- Rose, Dennis, 61
- Rule of law
 - implications, possible, arising from, 121–2
- Rules
 - ambiguity inherent in, 218
 - certainty, 222–6
 - exceptions, loyalty to generalisations and recognition of, 228
 - judicial discretion, and presence of, 219
 - legal, open texture of, 218
 - rigidity, and normative, 222
- Sawer, Professor Geoffrey, 207
- Schauer, Frederick, 227
- Separation of powers
 - Commonwealth, of, 127
- Simos, QC, 6
- Smyth, Jack QC, 18
- Spigelman, Chief Justice AC, 5, 175
 - adversary system, changing view of, 229
 - career of, 229
 - Chap V, Constitution, 127
 - Commonwealth and
 - institutional functionaries, as, 206
 - responsibilities, overlap between, 211
 - constitutional jurisdiction, power to confer on Privy Council, 120
 - existence, continued, and functioning, implications as to, 122–3
 - federal balance, 212–6
 - importance, relative, since federation, 123
 - jurisdiction, implied prohibition on being vested in federal courts, 120
- Statute law, 88–105
 - case law, primacy over, 88, 95–8
 - certainty, 222–4
 - common law rights and, 88, 96
 - construction of statutes, law as mechanism for dealing with problems, 225–6
 - finding the statute, 93–4
 - general purposive legislation, as mechanism for dealing with problems of, 224
 - government policy, reduction to legislative form, 92–3
 - regulations, changing decision maker, 224
 - rigidity, and normative, 222
 - unreasonable applications of law, and filters for dealing with, 225
- Steyn, Lord, 14, 88
- Substantive review
 - developing standards for, 186
- Substantive rights
 - Constitution, recognition or protection by Chapter III, 20, 30–41
 - detention, right to freedom from, 20, 21, 38–9
 - equal application of federal law, right to, 20, 22, 39–41
 - usurpation of judicial power, right to protection from, 20–1, 32–8
- Suffrage
 - universal adult, guarantee of, 104–5
- Sunstein, Cass, 189
- Supreme Courts
 - State
 - constitutional courts, position as, 193
 - implications concerning existence of, 104–5, 120–1
- Susskind, Professor RE, 11–2
- Syllogism
 - meaning, 220–1
- Taggart, Michael, 172–3, 185, 186

- Technology
 - emerging, impact on Bar, 2–3, 11–2
- Top-down legal reasoning, 69–87
 - Australian legal discourse, entry into, 69
 - bottom-up reasoning, explanation of, 73–4
 - constitutional discourse, as part of, 75
 - Posner, formulation by, 66–7
 - proscription of concept, 73
- Torture
 - memorandum justifying, 175
- Trial
 - fair, Constitutional guarantee of right to, 28–30
- Tribe, Professor Lawrence, 215–6
- Truth
 - adversarial system and, 229, 235–8
 - civil law inquisitorial systems and, 241–8
 - civil law jurisdictions, and inquisitorial systems of, 241–8
 - common law exclusionary rules and, 230
 - finding, restrictions on, 239–41
 - justice, and principles of, 229
 - law and, 229–55
 - memory
 - facts lost by reason of, 248–54
 - problems with, 250–1
 - perception, plasticity of, 248–50
 - real, perceived truth and, 231
 - seeking, significance of, 238–9
- United Kingdom
 - administrative law in, 177–8
 - Human Rights Act*
 - decisions of Strasbourg Court, and requirement to take into account, 262–79
 - introduction of, 261
 - judicial review, unreasonableness as standard of, 187
 - Supreme Court, creation of, 260
- United Nations Charter, 261
- Universal Declaration of Human Rights, 261
- Unreasonableness
 - judicial review, as standard of, 187
- Vidal, Gore, 238–9
- Wade, Professor William, 177–8, 183
- Weinrib, Lorraine, 183, 187
- Weschler, Professor Herbert, 208–10
- Wheeler, Dr Fiona, 33
- Whitlam, Prime Minister Gough, 229
 - government, 98, 107
- Winterton, Professor, 30, 42
- Wolf, Lord, 11
- Wynes, Professor Anstey, 197
- Zines, Professor Leslie AO, 28, 44