

TRIBUTE TO SPECIAL GUEST EDITOR EMERITUS PROFESSOR SOL ENCEL

Professor Sol Encel was guest editor of this volume of the Elder Law Review dealing with grandparents and grandparenting. The Elder Law Review was fortunate to be the recipient of his wisdom prior to his passing on Friday 23rd July 2010.

Professor Encel had a long and distinguished career as Professor of Sociology at the University of New South Wales. His special interests were in social change and in more recent years the implications for policy-makers of longevity. His most recent projects in the field of Elder Law have been in relation to discrimination in relation to older workers and grandparenting.

We are honoured to present Professor Encel's editorial on this volume of the Elder Law Review.
