

Legal Education Digest

ISSN 1038-5622

VOL. 2 NO. 3

JANUARY 1994

The Legal Education Digest is a quarterly digest of articles and other publications on legal education. Over 150 journals are kept under review.

A List of Periodicals Digested is available, free of charge, from the Centre for Legal Education.

IN THIS ISSUE

We are actively investigating ways to offer our subscribers the Legal Education Digest in electronic form. We hope to advise you shortly. Present tentative plans are to offer the Digest in paper and/or floppy disc form.

The advantage of the computer form will be that:

- the Digest will be in cumulative form; and
- using the search facility on your computer you will be able to move easily about amongst the material by searching for key words, author's name, name of subject area, and so on.

Do not forget that we offer our subscribers free a List of Periodicals Digested; just telephone, fax or email us. Details are on the back page.

In this issue 76 articles are reviewed from 40 journals and other publications. We had so much material that some articles are already queued up for the next issue - including some articles from the Journal of Legal Education.

In this issue there are no strong themes. Reaction to the MacCrate Report in the United States, and debate in England on the Common Professional Examination, are two interesting themes. An interesting review of the Multistate Bar Examination is digested under Assessment Methods.

We hope our subscribers continue to find the Legal Education Digest useful during 1994.
