

31-Aug-06 Big Shot

As a part of the native title agreement between Tanami Gold and the Tjurabalan the company will employ Aborigines from Tjurabalan and Balgo. Tanami Gold executive Denis Waddell said that this was a 'partnership' and that 'the opportunity for us to bring training and employment for the Tjurabalan people was an important part of that process'. He also said that a very important part of that process was that 'we structured the arrangements so that royalties and other payments went into a trust account that is spent on community benefits, training, medical services and other things that could well lead to investment opportunities'. Australian, 31-Aug-06, pg 20.

Campbell grants a national heritage listing on the Burrup Peninsula. The Premier told parliament that the 'State Government could manage the peninsula successfully and sensibly'. He said that the heritage listing could have a 'an absolutely devastating impact on industry in that area and obviously therefore in the flow-on strength of the Australian economy'. Mr Carpenter has appointed Barty McFarlane to chair a 'co-ordination body'. He says that the listing would be absurd because 'applications for an injunction to stop work...could be lodged by parties outside Australia'. West Australian, 31-Aug-06, pg 17.
