ITEMS IN THE AIATSIS CATALOGUE

The following list contains either new or recently amended catalogue records relevant to Native Title issues. Please check MURA, the AIATSIS on-line catalogue, for more information on each entry.

Please check out the AIATSIS Library online exhibition, To remove and protect: laws that changed Aboriginal lives, that presents digitised copies of all legislation that applied specifically to Aboriginal children or were general child welfare/adoption laws. You can examine copies of all legislation from the 19th century to modern times. These laws were all cited in the Bringing them home report on the forced removal of Aboriginal children from their families.

Also, check out the on-line exhibit, Collectors of Words. At present, this includes wordlists compiled by E.M. Curr and R. Brough Smyth, but plans are in train to add more listings. There are several navigational devices to use, including clicking on a map for immediate access to the wordlist compiled for that area.

Recently catalogued research reports from the National Native Title Tribunal include;

Queensland: Bularnu people, Central Southern Queensland, Waluwarra people, Wangkangurru / Yarluyandi and Mithaka overlap, Wuthathi people #2
Western Australia; Wajarri Yamatji.

The Friends of the State Library of South Australia has issued a number of facsimile editions of early explorers' journals with introductions by Valmai

Hankel. Look under History- explorations and accounts.

Also, Suzanne Ziegler of the Berlin Phonogrammarchiv has issued a listing of all of its holdings of wax cylinders of music and speech recorded from 1898 to the 1930's. The Phonogrammarchiv sent wax cylinder recording machines all over the world in order to obtain copies of music and speech from non-Western cultures. Australian recordings include cylinders made by the Frobenius Expedition to Qld. and WA, Beagle Bay material, and a recording made in 1914 at Coranderrk, NSW. An accompanying CD contains digitally enhanced copies of a number of the recordings.
