Young Lawyers' Events

Young Lawyers' Ball 1997

The Young Lawyers' Ball will be held on Saturday 4 October at Tatou Restaurant & Bar, 577 Little Collins Street, Melbourne. Finger Food, Drinks, and DJ are included in the ticket price. Details as to theme and times and ticket price will be advised. Keep this date free, and be prepared to have a great evening!

The Inaugural Solicitors vs Bar Mooting Competition 1997

The Professional Development Committee of the Section in conjunction with the Australian Advocacy Institute has organised a moot demonstration between a team of newly admitted barristers and solicitors to take place on Thursday 4 September, 1997.

The moot will be in the form of a Court of Appeal case which will be argued before a bench consisting of members of the judiciary and bar by teams representing solicitors and barristers.

The moot will be a showcase of the skills and talents of junior practitioners and of the junior bar. We are expecting the evening will be well attended by both senior and junior members of the legal profession, members of the judiciary, members of Parliament and other distinguished guests.

We extend an invitation to our members and those interested to attend the event. To be included on the list of attendees and for further information, contact the Young Lawyers Section.

Telecommunications and Multi-Media Seminars

The seminars are organised by the Section's sub-committee, for Technology, Communications and Competition. The sub-committee is a group of lawyers who aim to promote public discussion on current legal issues which affect our nation.
