

Reception for newly

Over 50 newly admitted solicitors and their friends gathered at the Snail n' Bottle Restaurant at the Law Institute of Victoria on 7 April for a reception to celebrate the passing of another group of articulated clerks into solicitorhood.

Among the guests were the Hon. Justice John Coldrey and the Hon. Justice Philip Cummins. Andrew Scott, President of the Law Institute, and Grania Connors, Chair of the Young Lawyers' section of the Law Institute, welcomed new solicitors to the profession and also talked about the range of services and support the Law Institute and the Young Lawyers' section could offer them.
