

Bar review: Softbelly

Gareth Benson, Articled Clerk, Herbert Geer & Rundle

Have you gone soft in the head? Had a belly full of work for the week?

Softbelly is the perfect place to dine or just unwind in the heart of the city's Hardware Lane precinct.

Comfy couches, beaded curtains and flattering lighting set the scene for this venue which is just as popular during the day as it is night.

With an affordable breakfast and lunch menu, it is well worth the wait for a tasty bar snack or meal (the $10 pasta, wine and coffee lunch is a favourite).

But it's nights that Softbelly does best. Watch as the high tide of hedonism washes in after work, where the soft amber hues match the myriad of mixed drinks and cocktails on offer.

Whether it be a mid-week meal or a frenzied Friday night, at the end of the day, you will leave with a soft belly of delectable delights. ■
