

Get involved

EVER WONDERED WHO PRODUCES THIS AMAZING PUBLICATION? THE YOUNG LAWYERS SECTION EDITORIAL COMMITTEE DOES. LEARN HOW YOU CAN GET INVOLVED.

What is the Young Lawyers Section?

The Young Lawyers Section (YLS) is a dynamic group established to enhance the legal skills, knowledge and professional networks of members in the early stages of career development. We are here to support you from your university days, right through to admission and the early stages of your career through various events and activities, information, resources and our committees.

The YLS has committees?

We have eight of them. Joining a committee provides a fantastic opportunity for young lawyers to learn new skills, build professional networks and get involved in projects of the YLS. Our committees are the:

- Community Issues Committee (CIC)
- Editorial Committee (EC)
- Later Lawyers Network (LLN) Committee
- Law Reform Committee (LRC)
- Professional Development Committee (PDC)
- Regional and Suburban Young Lawyers' Committee (RSYLC)
- Social Committee (SC)

As you can see there is something for everyone.

We also have an Executive Committee which comprises the chairs of the above Committees, and our YLS president and vice president. ■

Still have questions? Then call us on 9607 9370 or email younglaw@liv.asn.au. We hope to see you soon.

How to join

Joining the YLS Committee is as simple as emailing younglaw@liv.asn.au. Just let us know which committee you are interested in and your LIV member number. Also be sure to check out the Get Involved page on the website which has further information about all the committees, their plans for 2014 and portfolios.

Commitment

But I have exams/a trial/a holiday booked and I can't make it to the meetings all the time. This is a common concern and it's ok. We all lead busy lives.

The committees meet every six weeks over lunch at the LIV from 1-2pm.

If you are unable to make a meeting you simply provide your apology and you will receive the minutes regardless. If you are stuck at campus or work outside of the CBD we also offer teleconferencing. The other great thing about our committees is the flexibility. You can join one or all committees and be involved as much as you like. You can choose – contribute to discussions or lead a project, the choice is yours.
