

ORBIT has new Australian office

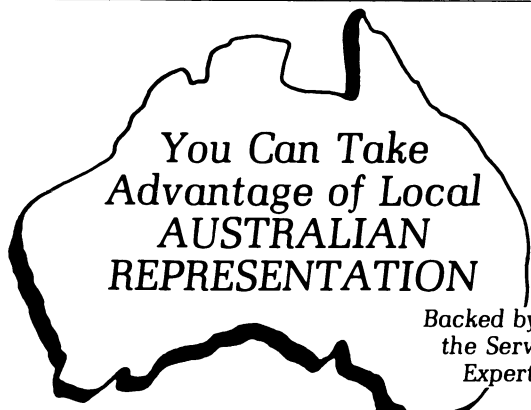

Katie Blake and Tina Reedman are now the representatives for SDC Search Service, Australia and New Zealand.

Katie is well known to most readers. She has been training users of on-line information retrieval systems for some years. Tina has worked in the library at the New South Wales Institute of Technology and for In-search DIAL Services.

You can find Katie and Tina at SDC Search Service in the Burroughs Building, 30 Alfred St, Milsons Point, NSW 2061. The mailing address is PO Box 439 Milsons Point, NSW 2061. The phone numbers are 922 9302 and 922 9308.

Katie and Tina would like to invite you to visit their new office – just give them a call and make an appointment. The schedule for Orbit New and Advanced User Training Courses will be announced shortly in Happenings.

A few words from the editor

THE FIRST ISSUE of InCite for next year will be coverdated January 28 and mailed on January 21. The closing date for copy and booking advertisements will be 11 January. Copy deadline for issue no2 is 25 January.

My first year of working with InCite has been interesting and a challenge, and it has been gratifying to see the response by a continuing increase in the number of people wanting to advertise in it.

There has been a corresponding increase in the amount of items submitted for publication, and there have been times when available space has not been sufficient to include everything

Incidentally, when sending items in to InCite, it is a great help if they are typed and double spaced and here before the deadline. We work on a very tight schedule, with the layout commencing only a day and a half after copy deadline.

I would like to express my thanks to the printers, Wentworth Press, for their co-operation and understanding whenever there have been last-minute changes or problems, and especially to Noel Manly, the designer at the typesetters, who has not only been an unfailing source of assistance throughout the year, but who put together issues 19 and 20 while I was away.
