Licence fees

4.(1) There is payable to the Commonwealth by a licensee who holds a controlled substances licence, in respect of each quarter during which the licence is in force, a fee calculated at the rate fixed by the regulations for HCFCs and methyl bromide imported by the licensee during that quarter.

10

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), if a controlled substances licence is in force for only part of a particular quarter, the part is taken to be a quarter.

Regulations

5. The Governor-General may make regulations fixing a rate for the purposes of subsection 4(1).
