4. (1) In this section—

“Appropriation Act” means the Appropriation Act (No. 1) 1972-73;

“Department” means a Department of State;

“original Department” means a Department specified in the Second Schedule to the Appropriation Act;

“relevant date” means 20th December, 1972;

“relevant period” means the period that commenced on the relevant date and ended on 28th February, 1973.

(2) The authority conferred on the Treasurer by section 3 of the Appropriation Act to issue out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund, and apply, moneys referred to in that section in respect of—

- (a) salaries, and payments in the nature of salaries, of persons employed in an original Department;
- (b) administrative expenses of an original Department; or
- (c) any other services related to a function of an original Department, being a function that became, during the relevant period, a function of another Department, shall, by force of this sub-section, be deemed to have extended to the issuing, during the relevant period, out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund, and the application, of those moneys in respect of—

- (d) salaries and payments in the nature of salaries of persons employed in another Department in connexion with the performance of a function of the other Department that, immediately before the relevant date, was a function of the original Department;
- (e) administrative expenses of another Department that are connected with the performance of such a function; or
- (f) services related to a function of another Department, being a function that, during the relevant period, became a function of the other Department, respectively.

(3) The authority conferred on the Treasurer by section 3 of the Appropriation Act to issue out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund, and apply, moneys referred to in that section in respect of rent, or furniture and fittings, for an original Department, or repairs and maintenance connected with an original Department, shall, by force of this sub-section, be deemed to have extended to the issuing, during the relevant period, out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund, and the application, of those moneys in respect of rent, or furniture and fittings, for any other Department, or repairs and maintenance connected with any other Department, respectively.
