

PARLIAMENTARY ALLOWANCES.

No. 2 of 1952.

An Act relating to the Allowances of Members of each House of the Parliament.

[Assented to 13th March, 1952.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, the Senate, and the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Australia, as follows :—

- Short title.           1. This Act may be cited as the Parliamentary Allowances Act 1952.
- Commencement.       2. This Act shall be deemed to have come into operation on the first day of January, One thousand nine hundred and fifty-two.
- Repeal.               3. The Acts specified in the First Schedule to this Act are repealed.
- Allowances of senators.   4.—(1.) Each senator shall receive an allowance at the rate of One thousand seven hundred and fifty pounds a year.
- (2.) Each senator shall receive, in addition to the allowance referred to in the last preceding sub-section, an allowance, in respect of the expenses of discharging his duties, at the rate of Five hundred and fifty pounds a year.
- (3.) The allowances to a senator shall be reckoned—
- (a) in the case of a senator chosen at the first election after a dissolution of the Senate—from and including the day of his election ;

(b) in the case of a senator chosen to fill a place which is to become vacant in rotation—from and including the first day of July following the day of his election ; and

(c) in the case of a senator chosen or appointed to fill a casual vacancy—from and including the day of his choice or appointment.

(4.) The allowances to a senator who is a member of the Senate immediately before a dissolution of the Senate and is a candidate at the next following Senate election shall be reckoned to and including the day next before the day of that election.

5.—(1.) Each member of the House of Representatives shall receive an allowance at the rate of One thousand seven hundred and fifty pounds a year.
