

TREATY OF PEACE (HUNGARY).

No. 20 of 1921.

An Act to carry into effect the Treaty of Peace with Hungary.

[Assented to 15th December, 1921.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS at Trianon, on the fourth day of June One thousand nine hundred and twenty, a Treaty of Peace with Hungary (including a protocol and declaration annexed thereto), a copy of which has been laid before each House of the Parliament, was signed by a representative of the Commonwealth on behalf of His Majesty the King, and it is expedient that the Government of the Commonwealth should have power to do all such things as are necessary and expedient for giving effect to the said Treaty on the part of the Commonwealth :

Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, the Senate, and the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Australia, as follows :—

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the Treaty of Peace (Hungary) Act 1921.

Application of Act to Territories.

2. This Act shall apply to the Territories under the authority of the Commonwealth including any territory governed by the Commonwealth under a mandate.

Regulations.

3. The Governor-General may make such regulations and do such things as appear to him to be necessary for carrying out and giving effect to the provisions of the said Treaty.

Contravention of regulations.

4. The regulations may provide for the punishment of offences against the regulations, by the imposition of the following penalties :—

- (a) If the offence is prosecuted summarily—a fine not exceeding Five hundred pounds or imprisonment for any term not exceeding twelve months, or both ;
- (b) If the offence is prosecuted upon indictment—a fine of any amount or imprisonment for not more than seven years, or both.
