A BILL

To amend the Crimes Act, 1900, the Habitual Criminals Act, 1905, and the Criminal Appeal Act of 1912; and to repeal the Crimes (Girls' Protection) Act, 1910, and the Crimes (Girls' Protection) Amendment Act, 1911; and for other purposes consequent thereon or incidental thereto.

[MR. D. R. HALL;— December, 1915.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the "Crimes (Amendment) Act, 1915," and shall be read with the Crimes Act, 1900, hereinafter called the Principal Act.

2. In amendments inserted by this Act in the Principal Act, the expression "this Act" means the Principal Act as amended by this Act.

3. The enactments mentioned in the Schedule to this Act are hereby repealed.

4. Part I of the Principal Act is amended as follows:—

(a) Section four: After the definition of "Governor" insert the following definition:—

"Grievous bodily harm" includes any permanent or serious disfiguring of the person.

(b) Section four: After the definition of "justice" insert the following definition:—

"Loaded arms" means any gun, pistol, or other arms, loaded in the barrel or chamber with gunpowder or other explosive substance, and with ball, shot, slug, or other destructive material, although the attempt to discharge may fail from want of proper priming, or from any other cause; and every gun, pistol, or other arms, unlawfully presented at any person, shall be deemed to be loaded unless the contrary is shown.

(c) Section four: Add at end of definition of "dwelling-house": "Any building or other place which if occupied would be a dwelling-house shall be deemed to be a dwelling-house notwithstanding that it is temporarily unoccupied."

(d) Section eight: Insert after the words "Where, by this or any other Act," the words "or by any rule, regulation or by-law, duly made under or by virtue of the provisions of any Act".

(e) Section nine is repealed, and the following is substituted :—

9. (1) Whenever by this or any Act an offence is punishable by imprisonment with or without hard labour for a term exceeding two years, such offence is hereby declared to be and shall be dealt with as a felony, and whenever in this or any Act or Imperial Act the term "felony" is used, the same shall be taken to mean an offence punishable as aforesaid.

(2) Every offence not so punishable shall be, and shall be dealt with, as a misdemeanour only.

(f) Section ten is repealed.

5. Parts II, III, IV, V, VI, VII, VIII, and IX of the Principal Act are amended by the substitution of the word "imprisonment" for the words "penal servitude" wheresoever occurring.

6. Parts III and IV of the Principal Act are amended as follows :—

Sections twenty-seven, twenty-eight, one hundred and ten, and one hundred and ninety-six : Omit the words "suffer death", and substitute therefor the words "imprisonment for for life".

19. (1) Whosoever commits the crime of murder shall be liable—

(a) if it be of the first degree—to imprisonment for the term of his natural life ;

(b) if it be not of the first degree—to imprisonment for twenty years.

(2) Murder shall be deemed to be of the first degree where the act of the accused, or thing by him omitted to be done, causing the the death charged was preceded by will and premeditation to effect the death of any person whether the result has been the death of that person or some other person.

It is immaterial whether these acts of the mind succeeded each other rapidly or not or whether the act or omission causing the death charged followed these acts of the mind rapidly or not.

(3) On the trial of any person for murder the jury shall, if they convict the accused, say in and by their verdict whether they find the murder to have been of the first degree or not.

- (c) Section thirty-six is repealed.
- (d) Sections sixty-three and sixty-seven : Omit the words "suffer death" and insert in lieu thereof the words "imprisonment for twenty years."
- (e) Sections sixty-four, sixty-nine, seventy, seventy-one, seventy-two, seventy-three, seventy-four, seventy-five, seventy-six, seventy-seven, and seventy-eight are repealed, and the following are substituted therefor—

64. Where on the trial of a person for rape the jury are satisfied that the female was a girl under the age of sixteen years, but above the age of ten years, and that the accused had carnal knowledge of her but with her consent, they may acquit him of the rape charged and find him guilty of an offence under section seventy-one of this Act, and he shall be liable to punishment accordingly.

69. Where on the trial of a person for carnally knowing a girl under the age of ten years, the jury are satisfied that she was of or above that age, but under the age of sixteen years, and that the accused had carnal knowledge of such girl, they may acquit him of the offence charged and find him guilty of an offence under section seventy-one of this Act, and he shall be liable to punishment accordingly.

70. Where on the trial of a person for carnally knowing a girl under the age of ten years, the jury are satisfied that she was of or above that age, but under the age of sixteen years, and that the accused had not carnal knowledge of such girl, but was guilty of an offence under section seventy-two of this Act, they may acquit him of the offence charged and find him guilty of an offence under the said last-mentioned section, and he shall be liable to punishment accordingly.

71. Whosoever unlawfully and carnally knows any girl of or above the age of ten years, and under the age of sixteen years, shall be liable to imprisonment for ten years.

72. Whosoever attempts unlawfully and carnally to know any girl above the age of ten years, and under the age of sixteen years, or assaults any such girl with intent carnally to know her, shall be liable to imprisonment for five years.

73. Whosoever, being a schoolmaster or other teacher, or step-father, unlawfully and carnally knows any girl of or above the age of ten years, and under the age of seventeen years, being his pupil or step-daughter, shall be liable to imprisonment for fourteen years.

74. Whosoever, being a schoolmaster or teacher, or step-father, by any means attempts unlawfully and carnally to know any girl of or above the age of ten years, and under the age of seventeen years, being his pupil or step-daughter, or assaults any such girl with intent carnally to know her, shall be liable to imprisonment for seven years.

75. Nothing in the two last preceding sections shall prevent such schoolmaster, teacher, or step-father from being prosecuted under section seventy-one or seventy-two of this Act.

76. (1) Whosoever assaults any female and, at the time of, or immediately before or after such assault, commits any act of indecency upon or in the presence of such female, or uses to such female any indecent language, shall be liable to imprisonment for three years, or, if the female be under the age of sixteen years, to imprisonment for five years.

77. The consent of the girl, pupil, or step-daughter shall be no defence to any charge under sections sixty-seven, sixty-eight, seventy-one, seventy-two, seventy-three, or seventy-four, or, if the female be under the age of sixteen years, to any charge under section seventy-six :

Provided that it shall be sufficient defence to any charge which renders a person liable to be found guilty of an offence under sections seventy-one, seventy-two, or seventy-six if it be made to appear to the court or jury before whom the charge is brought—

- (a) that the girl was over the age of fourteen years at the time of the alleged offence ;
- (b) that she consented to the commission of the offence ; and
- (c) that—
  - (i) she was at the said time a common prostitute or an associate of common prostitutes ; or
  - (ii) the person so charged had at the said time reasonable cause to believe she was of or above the age of sixteen years.

78. No prosecution in respect of any offence under sections seventy-one, seventy-two, or seventy-six shall, if the girl in question was at the time of the alleged offence over the age of fourteen years and under the age of sixteen years, be commenced after the expiration of twelve months from the time of the alleged offence.

(f)

(f) Section seventy-nine: Omit the words "penal servitude for life or any term not less than five years" and substitute therefor the words "imprisonment for fourteen years."

78A. Whosoever, being a male, has carnal knowledge of his grandmother, mother, grand aunt, aunt, sister, daughter, granddaughter, niece, or grand-niece, or being a female of or above the age of sixteen years, has carnal knowledge of her grandfather, father, grand-uncle, uncle, brother, son, grandson, nephew, or grand-nephew, whether in any such case the relationship is of half or full blood, or is or is not traced through lawful wedlock, shall be liable to imprisonment for fourteen years.

78B. Whosoever, being a male, or being a female of or above the age of sixteen years, attempts to commit any offence under the last-preceding section, shall be liable to imprisonment for seven years.

78c. (1) It shall be a sufficient defence to a charge under either of the last two preceding sections that the person charged did not know that the person with whom the offence is alleged to have been committed was related to him or her, as alleged.

(2) It shall be no defence to a charge under either of the last two preceding sections that the person with whom the offence is alleged to have been committed consented thereto.

78D. On the conviction of a male person of an offence under section seventy-eight A or under section seventy-eight B, the court may divest the offender of all authority over the female with whom the offence has been committed, and if the offender is the guardian of such female, may remove the offender from such guardianship, and in any such case may appoint any person or persons to be the guardian or guardians of such female during her minority, or for any greater or less period.

78E. If on the trial of any male person for an offence under section sixty-three or under section sixty-five the jury are not satisfied that he is guilty of the offence charged, but are satisfied that he is guilty of an offence under section seventy-eight A or under section seventy-eight B, they may acquit such person of the offence charged, and find him guilty of an offence under section seventy-eight A or under section seventy-eight B, and he shall be liable to punishment accordingly.

10. The following section is inserted next after section eighty-seven of the Principal Act :—

87A. Whosoever procures, entices or leads away, or detains any female under the age of twenty-one years, whether with her consent or not, with intent that he, or some other person, may have carnal knowledge of such girl, either within or without New South Wales, shall, notwithstanding that some one or more of the various acts constituting the offence may have been committed outside New South Wales, be liable to imprisonment for fourteen years.

11. The following section is inserted next after section eighty-nine of the Principal Act :—

89A. Whosoever by means of any fraud, violence, threat, or abuse of authority, or by the use of any drug or intoxicating liquor, procures, entices, or leads away or detains any woman of or above the age of twenty-one years with intent that he, or some other person, may have carnal knowledge of such woman, either within or without New South Wales, shall, notwithstanding that some one or more of the various acts constituting the offence may have been committed outside New South Wales, be liable to imprisonment for seven years.

12.

12. The following sections are inserted next after section ninety-one of the Principal Act:—

91A. (d)

(d) Section five hundred and sixty-one is repealed, and the following is substituted :—

561. (1) If during the period specified in the recognizance an offender so discharged

(a) is proved to any justice to have failed to report his address and occupation to the person at the times and in the manner prescribed by the last preceding section ; or

(b) is charged by an officer of police with getting his livelihood by dishonest means, and, being brought before any justice, it appears to such justice that there are reasonable grounds for believing that he is getting his livelihood by dishonest means ; or

(c) on being charged with an offence punishable on indictment, or summary conviction, and on being required by the justice or justices before whom he is charged to give his name and address, refuses to do so, or gives a false name or a false address ; or

(d) is convicted of any offence against the Vagrancy Act, 1902, or of any indictable offence, or of any offence punishable on summary conviction, and for which imprisonment for a period exceeding one month may be imposed ;

then, and in any of such cases, the court or judge or the justice or justices before whom such proof is given, or before whom the offender is so charged, or convicted, may, whether the period named in the recognizance has or has not expired, forfeit the recognizance, and may direct him to be committed to prison to perform his sentence as aforesaid or so much thereof as remains to be performed, under the provisions hereinbefore contained, and he shall be so committed accordingly, and the judge or justice or justices may grant any necessary warrant for his committal. (2)

(2) Upon the production of a certificate under the hand of the clerk of the peace stating that as the result of proceedings under the preceding subsection of this section the recognizance is liable to be forfeited or that the offender is liable to be committed to prison any court or judge or any justice or justices may exercise all or any of the powers vested by the said subsection in the judge or justice or justices therein mentioned.

31. The following section is inserted next after section five hundred and sixty of the Principal Act:—
