

[CONFIDENTIAL]
(Rough Draft for Consideration Only.)

No. , 1933.

A BILL

To restrict the operation of section four of the Married Women (Lecturers and Teachers) Act, 1932; to amend that Act; and for purposes connected therewith.

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Married Women Short title.
(Lecturers and Teachers) Amendment Act, 1933."

(2) The Married Women (Lecturers and Teachers) Act, 1932, as amended by this Act may be cited as the Married Women (Lecturers and Teachers) Act, 1932-1933.

2. The Married Women (Lecturers and Teachers) Act, 1932, is amended by inserting at the end of section four the following new subsection:—

Amendment of Act No.
28, 1932,
s. 4.

(Superannuation
and leave.)

(3) Subsection one of this section shall not extend to or in respect of the termination, on account of her marriage, after the commencement of the Married Women (Lecturers and Teachers) Amendment Act, 1933, of the office or employment of any officer or employee where such office or employment is terminated by or under section three of this Act.

In the case of such a termination of office or employment under that section the following provisions shall have effect—

- (a) the termination shall for the purposes of the Superannuation Act, 1916-1930, be deemed to be—
 - (i) “retirement” if the contributor concerned has attained the age at which her right to retire has accrued;
 - (ii) “resignation” if the contributor concerned has not attained such age;
- (b) for the purposes of section seventy-one of the Public Service Act, 1902, the termination shall be deemed to be retirement.
