[CONFIDENTIAL]

(Rough Draft for Consideration Only.)

No. , 1932.

A BILL

To make further provisions as to public exhibitions to be held at the University of Sydney; to amend in certain respects the University and University Colleges Act, 1900, as amended by subsequent Acts, and certain other Acts; and for purposes connected therewith.

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "University and Short title. University Colleges (Amendment) Act, 1932."

University and University Colleges (Amendment).

(2) The University and University Colleges Act, 1900, as amended by subsequent Acts, is in this Act referred to as the Principal Act.

(3) The Principal Act, as amended by this Act, may be cited as the University and University Colleges Act, 1900-1932.

2. The Principal Act is amended—

(a) by omitting section thirty;

(b) by omitting section thirty-one;

(c) by omitting subsections two and three of section 31A and by inserting in lieu thereof the following new subsections:—

Amendment of Act No. 22, 1900.

Sec. 30. (Residence of students.)

Sec. 31. (Licensed boarding-houses.)

Sec. 31A. (Public exhibitions.)

(2) The number of such exhibitions to be so allotted each year shall be one hundred and twenty-five.

Subject to this subsection no exhibition shall be allotted after the commencement of the University and University Colleges (Amendment) Act, 1932, to a student—

(a) whose income exceeds an amount prescribed by by-laws made by the Senate in that behalf; or

(b) the income of whose parents exceeds an amount specified in a scale prescribed in like manner compiled with regard to the number of dependents of such parents:

Provided that in the case of the twenty-five students who in the examination referred to in subsection three of this section rank higher in order of merit than the remaining applicants for exhibitions the foregoing provisions of this subsection relating to income shall not apply.

(3) Subject to subsection two of this section exhibitions shall be allotted in the order of merit attained at the latest examination for a leaving certificate certificate by the student applicants for exhibitions whose leaving certificates certify that the student has passed such examination in the subjects and at the standards prescribed by by-laws made by the Senate as necessary for matriculation.

Persons who have been residents of New South Wales for three years may compete at the examination for a leaving certificate, shall be considered with other applicants for exhibitions, and shall be eligible to be allotted exhibitions, but the number of exhibitions allotted in any year to such persons shall not exceed six.

- (d) by omitting section 31B and by inserting in lieu thereof the following new section:—

31B. (1) The Senate shall allow students as approved by the Minister to a number not exceeding one hundred and fifty at any one time to attend University lectures in courses for their first degree and to sit for examination without the payment of matriculation lecture examination or degree fees.

Certain approved students to attend lectures, etc., without payment of fees.

The Senate shall also upon the nomination of the Minister allow other students to attend lectures in courses for their first degrees on payment of one-half of the lecture fees prescribed for such courses by the by-laws made by the Senate.

(2) Every such student shall be either a student of the Teachers' College or a teacher in a school under the Public Instruction Act of 1880, and shall previously have passed the entrance examination prescribed by the by-laws made by the Senate.

(3) The concession under this section shall be made throughout the courses of a student required for his first degree but only if and so long as he is of good conduct and makes such progress in his studies as satisfies the Senate.

University and University Colleges (Amendment).

(e) (i) by omitting from subsection three of section Sec. 15.
fifteen the words "Colonial Secretary" and (By-laws.)
by inserting in lieu thereof the word
"Minister";

(ii) by inserting at the end of the same subsection the following words:—

If either House of Parliament passes a resolution of which notice has been given at any time within fifteen sitting days after the by-laws and regulations have been laid before such House disallowing any by-law or regulation or part thereof, such by-law, regulation or part shall thereupon cease to have effect.
