BLACKWATTLE BAY
LAND RECLAMATION ACT AMENDMENT.

An Act to amend the “Blackwattle Bay Land Reclamation Act 1873.” [16th May, 1878.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient that the whole of the area reclaimed or to be reclaimed under the authority of the Act thirty-six Victoria number ten should be set apart and dedicated in perpetuity for a park or place for public recreation Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows :—

Repeal of part of thirty-six Victoria number ten.

1. So much of the first section of the said Act (thirty-six Victoria number ten) as limits the area to be set apart and dedicated for purposes of public recreation to one-fourth part of the entire area reclaimed thereunder and as provides for the sale or letting of the lands so reclaimed and for the erection thereon of dwelling-houses shops stores or warehouses is hereby repealed.

The whole of the reclaimed area to be set apart for purposes of public recreation.

2. The whole of the area reclaimed under the authority of the said Act shall be and the same is hereby declared to be set apart and dedicated in perpetuity as a park or place of public recreation And this enactment shall be construed to extend all the provisions (so far as they can be applied) of the “Public Parks Act of 1854” to the area so reclaimed.
