

Act No. 62, 1900.

An Act to provide for the application of the money derived or to be derived from certain securities and interest in respect of the same ; and to amend the Church and School Lands Act, 1897. [5th December, 1900.]

CHURCH AND SCHOOL LANDS (AMENDMENT).

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the "Church and School Lands (Amendment) Act, 1900." Short title.

2. Notwithstanding anything in section fourteen of the Church and School Lands Act, 1897, any money derived or to be derived after the commencement of the said Act from the sale of any securities in which any moneys forming part of the Public Instruction Endowment Account were invested, and any interest received or to be received after such commencement in respect of any such securities, shall be applied in the manner directed by the said section in respect of moneys at credit of the said account at the commencement of the said Act. Application of money derived from sale of securities and interest on the same.
