Schedule 1 Amendment of Crimes Act 1900 No 40

Part 3A, Division 8

Insert after Division 7:

Division 8 Public threats or incitement of violence on grounds of race, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity or intersex or HIV/AIDS status

93Z Offence of publicly threatening or inciting violence on grounds of race, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity or intersex or HIV/AIDS status

- (1) A person who, by a public act, intentionally or recklessly threatens or incites violence towards another person or a group of persons on any of the following grounds is guilty of an offence:
- the race of the other person or one or more of the members of the group,
 - that the other person has, or one or more of the members of the group have, a specific religious belief or affiliation,
 - the sexual orientation of the other person or one or more of the members of the group,
 - the gender identity of the other person or one or more of the members of the group,
 - that the other person is, or one or more of the members of the group are, of intersex status,
 - that the other person has, or one or more of the members of the group have, HIV or AIDS.

Maximum penalty:

- in the case of an individual—100 penalty units or imprisonment for 3 years (or both), or
 - in the case of a corporation—500 penalty units.
- (2) In determining whether an alleged offender has committed an offence against this section, it is irrelevant whether the alleged offender's assumptions or beliefs about an attribute of another person or a member of a group of persons referred to in subsection (1) (a)–(f) were correct or incorrect at the time that the offence is alleged to have been committed.
- (3) In determining whether an alleged offender has committed an offence against this section of intentionally or recklessly inciting violence, it is irrelevant whether or not, in response to the alleged offender's public act, any person formed a state of mind or carried out any act of violence.
- (4) A prosecution for an offence against this section is not to be commenced without the approval of the Director of Public Prosecutions.
- (5) In this section:
- gender identity means the gender related identity, appearance or mannerisms or other gender related characteristics of a person (whether by way of medical intervention or not), with or without regard to the person's designated sex at birth.
