Customs Regulation.

Which declaration shall be written on the bill of entry of such articles and shall be subscribed with the hand of the importer thereof or his known agent in the presence of the Collector or other principal officer of the Customs at the port of importation Provided that if upon view and examination of such articles by the proper officer of the Customs it shall appear to him that the said articles are not valued according to the true price and value thereof and according to the true intent and meaning of this Act then and in such case the importer or his known agent shall be required to declare on oath before the Collector or Controller what is the invoice price of such articles and that he verily believes such invoice price is the current value of the articles at the place from whence the said articles were imported and such invoice price with the addition of ten pounds per centum thereon shall be deemed to be the value of the articles in lieu of the value so declared by the importer or his known agent and upon which the duties due thereon shall be charged and paid and provided also that if it shall appear to the Collector and Controller or other proper officer that such articles have been invoiced below the real and true value thereof at the place from whence the same were imported or if the invoice price is not known the articles shall in such case be re-examined by two competent persons to be nominated and appointed by the Governor of the said Colony and such persons shall declare on oath before the Collector or Controller or other proper officer what is the true and real value of such articles at the port of importation in this Colony and the value so declared on the oaths of such persons shall be deemed to be the true and real value of such articles and upon which the duties due thereon shall be charged and paid.

If importer refuse to pay such duty the goods to be sold.

27. And be it further enacted That if the importer of such articles shall refuse to pay the duties imposed thereon it shall and may be lawful for the Collector or other chief officer of the Customs and he is hereby required to take and secure the same with the casks or other packages thereof and to cause the same to be publicly sold within the space of twenty days at the most after such refusal made and at such time and place as such officer shall by four or more days public notice appoint for that purpose which articles shall be sold to the best bidder and the money arising from the sale thereof shall be applied in the first place in payment of the said duties together with the charges that shall have been occasioned by the said sale and the overplus if any shall be paid to such importer or proprietor or any other person authorized to receive the same.

Goods not entered in twenty days may be landed and secured and if duties be not paid within three months may be sold.

28. And be it further enacted That every importer of any goods shall within twenty days after the arrival of the importing ship or vessel make due entry inwards of such goods and land the same and in default of such entry and landing it shall be lawful for the officers of the Customs to convey such goods to the King's Warehouse and if the duties due upon such goods be not paid within three months after such twenty days shall have expired together with all charges of removal and warehouse rent the same shall be sold and the produce thereof shall be applied first to the payment of freight and charges next of duties and the overplus if any shall be paid to the proprietor of the goods.

Rent on goods secured for duty.

29. And be it further enacted That whenever any goods shall be taken to and secured in any of the King's Warehouses in the said Colony for security of the duties thereon or to prevent the same from coming into home use it shall and may be lawful for the Collector and Controller to charge demand and receive warehouse rent for such goods for all such time as the same shall remain in such warehouse at the same rate as may be payable for the like goods when warehoused in any warehouse in which such goods may be warehoused without payment of duty.

Customs Regulation.

30. And be it further enacted and declared That no goods shall be imported into New South Wales as being imported from the United Kingdom or from any other British Possession (if any advantage attach to such distinction) unless such goods appear upon the cockets or other proper documents for the same to have been duly cleared outwards at the port of exportation in the United Kingdom or in such other British Possession nor unless the ground upon which such advantage be claimed be stated in such cocket or document.

Goods imported from United Kingdom or British Possessions must appear in cocket &c.

31. And be it further enacted That no entry nor any warrant for the landing of any goods or for the taking of any goods out of any warehouse shall be deemed valid unless the particulars of the goods and packages in such entry shall correspond with the particulars of the goods and packages purporting to be the same in the report of the ship or in the certificate or other document where any is required by which the importation or entry of such goods is authorized nor unless the goods shall have been properly described in such entry by the denomination and with the characters and circumstances according to which such goods are charged with duty or may be imported and any goods taken or delivered out of any ship or out of any warehouse by virtue of any entry or warrant not corresponding or agreeing in all such respects or not properly describing the same shall be deemed to be goods landed or taken without due entry thereof and shall be forfeited.

Entry not to be valid if goods are not properly described.

32. And be it further enacted That the unshipping carrying and landing of all goods and the bringing of the same to the proper place after landing for examination or for weighing and the putting of the same into the scales and the taking of the same out of and from the scales after weighing shall be performed by or at the expense of the importer.

Goods to be unshipped &c. at the expense of the importer.

33. And be it further enacted That before any goods shall be shipped for exportation to the United Kingdom as being the produce of this Colony or of Van Diemen's Land or of New Zealand respectively and upon which any advantage shall be claimed at the port of importation sufficient proof on oath shall be made to the satisfaction of the Collector and Controller of the identity of such goods being the produce of this Colony or of Van Diemen's Land or of New Zealand respectively whereupon the Collector and Controller are hereby empowered to grant a certificate to that effect.

Certificate of production where advantage is claimed at port of importation.

34. And whereas it is expedient to make regulations for the warehousing of spirits tobacco and other goods which may be legally imported and it is therefore necessary to provide for the appointing of proper warehouses and for the lodging and securing such goods therein Be it therefore enacted That it shall be lawful for the Collector and Controller by notice in writing under their hands to appoint such warehouses respectively as shall be approved of by them for the warehousing and securing of goods therein for the purposes of this Act and also by like notice to revoke any such appointment or declaration Provided also that every such notice shall be transmitted to the Governor and shall be published in such manner as he shall direct.

Collector and Controller to appoint warehouses for bonding goods.

35. And be it further enacted That all appointments of warehouses for the warehousing of goods made under the authority of any other Act in force at the time of the commencement of this Act shall continue in force as if the same had been made under the authority of this Act and all bonds given in respect of any goods warehoused or entered to be warehoused under any Act in force at the time of the commencement of this Act shall continue in force for the purposes of this Act.

Appointments of warehouses and bonds given previous to Act to continue in force.

36. And be it further enacted That it shall be lawful for the importer of any spirits tobacco or other goods to warehouse the same Goods may be warehoused without payment of duty.

in the warehouses so appointed without payment of any duty on the first entry thereof subject nevertheless to the rules regulations restrictions and conditions hereinafter contained.

Stowage of goods in warehouse.

37. And be it further enacted That all goods so warehoused shall be stowed in such parts or divisions of the warehouse and in such manner as the Collector and Controller shall direct and if the occupier of the warehouse shall omit so to stow the same he shall for every such omission forfeit the sum of five pounds and that the warehouse shall be locked and secured in such manner and shall be opened and visited only at such time and in the presence of such officers and under such rules and regulations as the Collector and Controller shall direct and that all such goods shall after being landed upon importation be carried to the warehouse or shall after being taken out of the warehouse for exportation be carried to be shipped under such rules and regulations as the Collector and Controller shall direct.

Warehouse fraudulently opened penalty £500.

38. And be it further enacted That if any importer or proprietor of any goods warehoused or any other person shall by any contrivance fraudulently open the warehouse or gain access to the goods except in the presence of the proper officer acting in the execution of his duty such importer proprietor or other person shall forfeit and pay for every such offence the sum of five hundred pounds.

Bond upon goods warehoused.

39. And be it further enacted That upon the entry of any goods to be warehoused the importer of such goods instead of paying down the duties due thereon shall give bond with two sufficient sureties to be approved of by the Collector and Controller in treble the amount of duties payable on such goods with condition for the safe depositing of such goods in the warehouse mentioned in such entry and for the payment of all duties due upon such goods or for the exportation thereof according to the first account taken of such goods upon the landing of the same and without any abatement on account of deficiency except as by this Act is otherwise provided and with further condition that no part thereof shall be taken out of such warehouse until cleared from thence upon due entry and payment of duty or upon due entry for exportation and if after such bond shall have been given the goods or any part thereof shall be sold or disposed of so that the original bonder shall be no longer interested in or have control over the same it shall be lawful for the Collector and Controller to admit fresh security to be given by the bond of the new proprietor or other person having control over such goods with two sufficient sureties and to cancel the bond given by the original bonder of such goods or to exonerate him to the extent of the fresh security so given.

Goods not duly warehoused &c. to be forfeited.

40. And be it further enacted That if any goods which have been entered to be warehoused shall not be duly carried and deposited in the warehouse or shall afterwards be taken out of the warehouse without due entry and clearance or having been entered and cleared for exportation from the warehouse shall not be duly carried and shipped or shall afterwards be re-landed except with the permission of the proper officer of the Customs such goods shall be forfeited.

Account of goods to be taken on landing.

41. And be it further enacted That upon the entry and landing of any goods to be warehoused the proper officer of the Customs shall take a particular account of the same and shall mark the contents on each package and shall enter the same in a book to be kept for that purpose and no goods which shall have been so warehoused shall be taken or delivered from the warehouse except upon due entry and under care of the proper officer for exportation or upon due entry and payment of the duty for home use.

Samples may be allowed.

42. And be it further enacted That it shall be lawful for the Collector and Controller under such regulations as they shall see fit to permit moderate samples to be taken of any goods so warehoused without without entry and without payment of duty except as the same shall ultimately become chargeable with such duty.

43. And whereas spirits and tobacco and certain other goods are liable in time to fluctuation of quantity by the effect of the atmosphere or other natural causes Be it therefore enacted That it shall be lawful for the Collector and Controller or for the importer or proprietor of any such goods as aforesaid to require the same to be re-gauged or re-weighed at the time when the same shall be respectively delivered from the said warehouse and the duties respectively payable thereon shall be paid according to the quantities ascertained upon such re-gauging or re-weighing unless it shall be mutually agreed by and between the said parties that the said duties shall be paid on the quantities originally entered.

Spirits and tobacco may be re-gauged or re-weighed.

44. And be it further enacted That it shall be lawful for the Collector and Controller under such regulations as they shall see fit to permit the proprietor or other person having control over any goods so warehoused to sort separate pack and re-pack any such goods and to make such lawful alterations therein or arrangements and assortments thereof as may be necessary for the preservation of such goods or in order to the sale shipment or legal disposal of the same and also to permit any part of such goods so separated to be destroyed but without prejudice to the claim for duty upon the whole original quantity of such goods Provided always that it shall be lawful for any person to abandon any whole packages to the officers of the Customs for the duties without being liable to any duty upon the same.

Goods may be sorted and re-packed and whole packages abandoned.

45. And be it further enacted That all goods which shall have been so warehoused shall be duly cleared either for exportation or for home consumption within three years from the day of the first entry thereof and if any such goods be not so cleared it shall be lawful for the Collector and Controller to cause the same to be sold and the produce shall be applied first to the payment of the duties next to the warehouse rent and other charges and the overplus if any shall be paid to the proprietors Provided always that it shall be lawful for the Collector and Controller to grant further time for any such goods to remain warehoused if they shall see fit so to do.

All goods to be cleared within three years or sold but further time may be granted.

46. And be it further enacted That upon the entry outwards of any goods to be exported from the warehouse the person entering the same shall give security by bond in treble the duties of importation on the quantity of such goods with two sufficient sureties to be approved by the Collector or Controller that the same shall be landed at the place for which they be entered outwards or be otherwise accounted for to the satisfaction of the Collector and Controller.

Bond on entry for exportation.

47. And be it further enacted That if any goods entered or warehoused or entered to be delivered from the warehouse shall be lost or destroyed by any unavoidable accident either on shipboard or in the landing or shipping of the same or in the receiving into or delivering from the warehouse it shall be lawful for the Governor of the Colony for the time-being to remit or return the duties payable or paid on the quantity of such goods so lost or destroyed.

Governor may remit duties on goods lost or destroyed.
