

Act No. 20, 1901.

DEVONSHIRE-STREET
CEMETERY.

An Act to provide for the removal of human remains and certain slabs and tombstones from the Devonshire-street Cemetery, and for the re-interment of such remains; and to save the Secretary for Public Works and other persons harmless in respect of certain acts done by them in connection with the said cemetery. [17th October, 1901.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the "Devonshire-street Cemetery Act, 1901."

Removal of certain human remains from the Devonshire-street
Cemetery.

2. The Secretary for Public Works shall, within six months after the commencement of this Act, cause the remains of all persons buried in the land known as the Devonshire-street Cemetery, and described in the Schedule hereto (so far as such remains can by reasonable diligence be discovered), together with all slabs or tombstones in relation thereto having any legible inscription thereon to be collected with due care and removed to the new cemetery near La Perouse, or some other cemetery agreed upon with the representatives of the said persons so buried, and shall there cause such remains to be reverently re-interred.
