

ILLAWARRA COTTAGE HOSPITAL ACT.

Act No. 16, 1916.

George V, No. 16. An Act to incorporate, regulate, and otherwise promote the objects of the Illawarra Cottage Hospital; to amend the Public Hospitals Act, 1898, and the Truck Act of 1900; and for purposes consequent thereon or incidental thereto. [Assented to, 19th April, 1916.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Preliminary.

Short title. 1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Illawarra Cottage Hospital Act, 1916."

Definition. (2) In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

“Board” means board of directors of the hospital;

“Hospital” means the Illawarra Cottage Hospital;

“Member” means—

(a) any person who contributes to the support of the hospital a sum of not less than ten shillings annually, so long as he continues to so contribute;

(b) any person who for the time being is a contributor to the hospital under a scheme agreed upon by any employer and his employee employee, and approved by the governing body for the time being of the hospital, and hereinafter referred to as an "industrial contribution scheme"; and

(c) any contributor to the hospital of not less than ten pounds in one sum.

2. The provisions of the Public Hospitals Act, 1898, shall not apply to the Illawarra Cottage Hospital :

Provided that the rules relating to the Illawarra Cottage Hospital in force at the commencement of this Act shall remain in force until altered or repealed by by-laws made under the provisions of this Act.

3. The Truck Act of 1900 shall not apply to any industrial contribution scheme.

The hospital.

4. The members shall by the name of "the Illawarra Cottage Hospital" be a body corporate which shall have perpetual succession and a common seal, and under that name may sue and be sued, proceed and be proceeded against in all courts.

5. All real and personal property which at the commencement of this Act is vested in and held by any person in trust for or on behalf of the hospital is hereby transferred to and vested in the said body corporate, subject to any trusts affecting the same.

6. The said body corporate may take, purchase, hold, and enjoy not only such lands, buildings, and hereditaments as may from time to time be required for the purposes of the hospital, but also any other lands and hereditaments whatsoever or wheresoever situate, and may also take, purchase, and receive, hold and enjoy, any chattels and personal property, and may also sell, grant, convey, demise, or otherwise dispose of, either absolutely or by way of mortgage, any of the property, real or personal, belonging to the said body corporate :

Provided that it shall not be lawful for the said body corporate to sell, grant, convey, demise, mortgage, or dispose of any land now or hereafter granted to it by the Crown by way of free gift, unless with the approval of the Governor.

The

The board.

- George V,
No. 16. 7. The hospital and the property of the said body corporate shall be governed and managed by the board, and six directors shall form a quorum of such board for doing any act or performing or transacting any business which may under the provisions of this Act or the by-laws thereunder be done, performed, or transacted by such board.
- Hospital and property to be managed by directors.
- Board of directors. 8. The board shall for all purposes connected with the hospital be the representatives of the said body corporate, and shall consist of sixteen directors, of whom four shall be nominated by the Governor and hold office during his pleasure, five shall be elected annually by persons who contribute at least ten shillings annually to the support of the hospital, five shall be elected annually by the employees who contribute for the time being to the hospital under an "Industrial Contribution Scheme", and two shall be elected annually by the employers who subsidise their employees' contributions under such scheme.
- First board of directors. 9. The first elections of directors shall be held within three months after the commencement of this Act, and the twelve directors then elected, together with the four persons nominated by the Governor, shall collectively form the first board under this Act. Until such elections and nominations have been held and made, the existing committee of management shall continue to manage the hospital, and shall have power to make rules and take such steps as it may consider necessary for the proper carrying out of such elections.
- Annual meeting. 10. A meeting of the members shall be held in every year, and shall be called by the board of directors by advertisement in any one or more of the newspapers published in Wollongong.
- Appointment of directors in place of retiring directors. 11. At every annual meeting all the twelve directors elected shall retire, but shall be eligible for re-election, and twelve persons shall be elected directors according to the provisions of this Act in the room of the directors so retiring.
- Filling vacancies on board. 12. When and so often as any person nominated by the Governor ceases to be a director the Governor shall nominate some other person to be a director in his place, and when and so often as any person elected a director ceases ceases to be a director, the remainder of the directors George V,

No. 16. representing the class of contributors to which he belonged shall elect his successor.

13. Subject to the provisions of this Act, the board may make, repeal, and alter by-laws for regulating the times and modes of meetings and of transacting business, for fixing the number of votes of contributors in proportion to the amount of their contributions, for determining the qualification, disqualification, change, retirement, election, and appointment of directors, medical officers, auditors, executive and other officers, and nursing staff and sub-committees of the hospital, and generally for the management and government of the hospital and of all officers, servants, and patients thereof. Power to make
by-laws.

14. A copy of any such by-laws, sealed with the seal of the body corporate, and purporting to be certified by the secretary of the hospital as being correct, shall be received in any court as conclusive evidence of such by-laws, and of the same having been duly made under this Act. Copy of
by-laws to be evidence.

15. The board may invest any funds of the said body corporate which are not in the opinion of such board required to defray the current expenses of the hospital, and any moneys given or bequeathed to or arising from any donation of real or personal property to the hospital in any Government funds or debentures of any Australian States, or in any debentures or debenture stock of any municipal corporation in any such States, or of any bank or incorporated company carrying on business therein, or by way of purchase of or mortgage upon any freehold estate there as well as in bank or deposit receipts for fixed periods or otherwise, with power from time to time and at any time to vary and transfer any such investment for or into any other investment authorised by this Act: Provided that the board may at any time resort to any such investments and sell the same for the purpose of applying the proceeds of any such sale for the purposes of the hospital. Power of directors to invest funds.

16. The board may from time to time elect and appoint from their own body a house committee and such and so many sub-committees as they may think fit for transacting Directors to appoint subcommittees.

George V, transacting the affairs and business of the hospital
No. 16. with and subject to such powers, privileges, provisions, and conditions as may be expressed and declared by the
 by-laws.

Power to appoint
 medical school
 and nursing and training staff.

17. The board may make provision for the appointment and support of a medical school and a nursing and training staff for the hospital.

Miscellaneous.

Informality
 of election of director or officer not to invalidate
 acts, &c.

18. No irregularity, informality, or illegality in the election or appointment of any director or officer of the hospital shall render illegal or invalid any act, deed, matter, or thing done or executed or suffered to be done or executed by such director or officer in pursuance of such election or appointment, but any such election or appointment may in such way as may be provided for in the said by-laws be determined by resolution to be good or bad, and if bad the vacancy may be filled in such way as may be provided for in such by-laws, the provisions whereof as to the vitality of any such election or appointment and the acts, deeds, and things done by any director or officer in pursuance of any such election or appointment shall have the force and effect of law.
