

No. IV.

An Act to amend an Act to authorize the appropriation of the Old Burial Ground or Cathedral Close in Sydney to certain Municipal and other purposes. [21st July, 1875.]

ST. ANDREW'S
CATHEDRAL CLOSE.

WHEREAS by the second section of the Act thirty-two Victoria Preamble. number four intituled "An Act to authorize the appropriation of the Old Burial Ground or Cathedral Close in Sydney to certain Municipal and other Public purposes" it was enacted amongst other things that it should be lawful for the Governor with the advice of the Executive Council to grant to the Municipal Council of Sydney that part of the land commonly called the Old Burial Ground or Cathedral Close in the City of Sydney which is described in the first Schedule to the said Act on condition that a portion of the said land not being more than half an acre should be set apart for the erection of a Town Hall thereon. And whereas by the fourth section of the said Act it was amongst other things further enacted that the said Municipal Council should cause the sum of twenty-five thousand pounds at the least to be expended in building on the land so set apart as aforesaid for a Town Hall to be completed and fit for use on or before the first day of January in the year one thousand eight hundred and
