

Act No. 30, 1900.

An Act to make further and better provision as to the Municipal Government of the City of Sydney, and to amend the Sydney Corporation Act of 1879 and the Acts amending the same. [3rd October, 1900.]

SYDNEY
(AMENDING).

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Preliminary.

1. This Act shall be construed with the Sydney Corporation Act of 1879, hereafter called the Principal Act, and the Sydney Corporation Act Amendment Act, 1887, and may be cited as the "Sydney Corporation (Amending) Act, 1900." Incorporation and short title.

2. The Acts mentioned in Schedule One are, to the extent therein mentioned, hereby repealed. Repeal.

Provided that, until the first election of a mayor and aldermen under this Act, the council shall be as constituted at the commencement of this Act.

Wards of the city.

3. The city shall be divided into twelve wards, as hereunder described— Wards of city.

- (a) so much of Sydney-King electoral district as is bounded on the south by the northern side of King-street and the continuation thereof to the boundary of Sydney-Fitzroy electoral district, and such area shall be known as Bourke Ward;
- (b) so much of Sydney-King electoral district as is bounded on the north by the southern side of King-street and the continuation thereof to the boundary of Sydney-Fitzroy electoral district, and such area shall be known as Macquarie Ward;
- (c) so much of each of the Sydney-Fitzroy, Sydney-Belmore, Sydney-Cook, Sydney-Phillip, Sydney-Lang, and Sydney-Gipps electoral districts (described in Gazette number six hundred and eighty-eight, of the fifth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three) as is included within the boundaries of the city, which areas shall be known as Fitzroy, Belmore, Cook, Phillip, Lang, and Gipps Wards; and

Sydney Corporation (Amending).

(d) so much of each of the Sydney-Bligh, Sydney-Flinders, Sydney-Denison, and Sydney-Pyrmont electoral districts (described in the Gazette aforesaid) as is included within the boundaries of the city, together with so much of the city as is outside of and adjoining each of the said electoral districts and is not included within any other Sydney electoral district described as aforesaid, which areas shall be known as Bligh, Flinders, Denison, and Pyrmont Wards.

Purchaser of ratable property to give notice.

4. Every purchaser of ratable property situate within the city shall, within ninety days after the completion of his purchase, give or cause to be given written notice thereof to the council, stating his name and address, and on failure to comply with the requirements of this section shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds.

Qualifications of citizens.

5. (1) The following persons, if of the age of twenty-one years or upwards, shall be entitled to be placed on the citizens' roll for any year for any ward:—

(a) Any person, male or female, being a natural-born or naturalised British subject, who, on the first day of September of that year, is severally the owner of a freehold interest in possession of any property in that ward assessed at a yearly value of five pounds or upwards, or of a leasehold interest in any property in that ward of a yearly value of twenty-five pounds or upwards; and

One of the persons who are on the said day jointly the owners or leaseholders as aforesaid of any property assessed as aforesaid; and in such case the joint owner or leaseholder who is entitled to be placed on the roll shall be determined by a majority of such joint owners or leaseholders evidenced by agreement signed by such majority, and handed to the collector of the roll for the ward, and delivered by him with the list to the chamber magistrate of the Central Police Court, or, failing such agreement, according to the alphabetical order of the surnames of such joint owners or leaseholders. In the case of properties owned by public companies, or bodies corporate, or trustees, the directors of such companies, or bodies corporate, or the trustees, shall have power to nominate their manager or secretary, or one of their own number, as the person to be placed on the roll in respect of such property; or, failing such nomination, the manager or secretary of any such company, or the trustee whose name first appears in the instrument creating such trust shall be so enrolled.

Sydney Corporation (Amending).

- (b) Any person, male or female, being a natural-born or naturalised British subject, who has been continuously during the six months next preceding the first day of September in that year in joint or several occupation of any house, warehouse, counting-house, shop, or other building, including any room or part of a house separately occupied in that ward of a yearly value of ten pounds or upwards.

And where an occupier is entitled to the sole and exclusive use of any part of a house, that part shall not, for the purposes of this section, be deemed to be occupied otherwise than separately by reason only that the occupier is entitled to the joint use of some other part.

But any such house, warehouse, counting-house, shop, building, room or part of a house need not be throughout the six months constituting the period of qualification under this subsection the same property, provided it is in the same ward. In the case of properties occupied by public companies or bodies corporate, or trustees, the directors of such companies or bodies corporate, or the trustees, shall have power to nominate their manager or secretary, or one of their own number, as the person to be placed on the roll in respect of such property; or, failing such nomination, the manager or secretary of any such company, or the trustee whose name first appears in the instrument creating such trust shall be so enrolled.

- (c) Any person, male or female, being a natural-born British subject or naturalised person, who as a lodger has continuously during the six months next preceding the first day of September in that year, occupied jointly or severally any lodgings in the same dwelling-house in the said ward, of a clear yearly value of ten pounds or upwards.

(2) For the purposes of this Act the word "female" shall include married women.

(3) Provided that in the case of a joint occupation under subsection (b), or a joint occupation as a lodger under subsection (c), as aforesaid, only one of such joint occupiers or joint lodgers shall be entitled to be placed on the roll, unless the premises jointly occupied under subsection (b) are of the yearly value of twenty pounds or upwards, or unless such lodgings are of the clear yearly value of twenty pounds or upwards, in which cases such number of the said occupiers or lodgers as, when divided into the said yearly value, gives a quotient of ten pounds, with a remainder of less than ten pounds, shall be entitled to be placed on the citizens' roll.

Provision for joint occupiers or lodgers.

The joint occupiers or lodgers who shall be so entitled shall be determined by a majority of the occupiers or lodgers, evidenced by agreement signed by such majority, and handed to the collector of the roll for the ward, and delivered by him with the list to the chamber magistrate of the Central Police Court, or failing such agreement, according to the alphabetical order of the surnames of the occupiers or lodgers.
 P agreement

Where citizen has more than one qualification under subsection (a).

(4) Provided also that any person having a qualification mentioned in subsection (a) shall not be entitled to have his name placed on the roll for any ward in virtue of any other qualification under subsection (b) or subsection (c) which he may possess; but he shall be entitled to have his name placed on the roll for every ward in which he is qualified under the said subsection (a) by virtue of his ownership or lesseeship of property in that ward.

Under subsections (b) or (c).

(5) Provided, further, that any person having more than one qualification under subsection (b) or subsection (c), or under both those subsections, shall be only entitled to have his name placed on the roll for one ward; and he may by notice in writing given to the chamber magistrate of the Central Police Court choose the roll on which his name shall be placed, and if he does not make such choice before the expiration of the time prescribed for making out the lists of citizens, the chamber magistrate aforesaid shall make such choice:

Provided further, that any person having a qualification mentioned in subsection (a) as an owner of property shall, before voting at any election, make and subscribe a declaration before the presiding officer stating that he is the beneficial owner, or manager, or trustee for the beneficial owner, of the property for which his name is placed upon the roll:

Provided further that before any person claiming to vote under subsections (b) or (c) shall be permitted to vote, such person shall make and subscribe before the presiding officer a declaration in the form contained in Schedule Two to this Act.

Making false declaration.

(6) Any person who shall wilfully make a false declaration under this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanour.

Lists and rolls of citizens.

Appointment of collectors.

6. On or before the first day of September in every year the stipendiary magistrates, and the acting and deputy stipendiary magistrates, of the metropolitan police district, or any three of such magistrates, shall appoint members of the police force as collectors for each ward of the city, and every such collector shall, before entering on his duties, make and subscribe a declaration before a justice in the form of Schedule Three, which declaration shall be kept as a record in the Central Police Court.

Such magistrates or any three of them shall also appoint clerks of the revision courts to be held for that year under this Act.

Sydney Corporation (Amending).

7. Notwithstanding anything in section six the appointment of collectors for each ward of the city for the year one thousand nine hundred may be made as soon as practicable after the commencement of this Act. Appointment of collectors for 1900.

8. The collectors appointed for each ward shall, in the month of September in every year, make out a list arranged in the alphabetical order of the surnames of the persons who on inquiry such collectors consider are entitled to have their names placed on the roll for such ward, and shall deliver such list to the chamber magistrate of the Central Police Court. Collectors to make out list.

The said chamber magistrate shall forthwith on receipt of any such list cause it to be printed, and shall supply copies at a reasonable price to any person requiring the same, and shall cause a copy to be affixed on every Court of Petty Sessions in the city, and at some convenient place in each ward where there may be no Court of Petty Sessions.

The town clerk shall procure a copy of such list and cause it to be posted at the Town Hall.

9. The said lists shall contain the names and qualifications of all persons qualified to vote, alphabetically arranged according to the form in Schedule Four, and shall be signed by the chamber magistrate, and exhibited at the places provided for under the last preceding section from the first to the fifteenth day of October in each year. Twice at least during such time the town clerk shall cause notice to be published in two daily papers of such lists being so open to inspection.

10. At any time after the list for any ward has been made out, and before the fifteenth day of October in any year, any person whose name is not on such list may by notice in writing given by him or by some person on his behalf to the chamber magistrate of the Central Police Court make claim in the form of Schedule Five to have his name inserted in such list; and during the said period any person may by notice in writing given by him as aforesaid in the form of Schedule Six object to the name of any person being retained on such list. Notices of claims and objections.

As soon as possible after the said fifteenth day of October, the said chamber magistrate shall cause to be arranged in the alphabetical order of their surnames and printed in a paper the names of the persons so claiming, and shall cause to be arranged as aforesaid and printed in another paper the names of the persons so objected to, and shall supply copies at a reasonable price to any person requiring the same, and shall cause copies of such papers to be affixed on every Court of Petty Sessions in the city and at such places in each ward where the lists have been affixed and shall keep them so affixed until the roll for the ward has been prepared.

11. Between the fifteenth day of October and the fifteenth day of November revision courts for revising the lists for the wards of the city Revision courts to be held.

city shall be held at such places within the city as the stipendiary magistrates and deputy and acting stipendiary magistrates of the Metropolitan Police Court or any three of them may prescribe by notification in the Gazette and one or more of the metropolitan papers; and a copy of such notification shall be affixed on every Court of Petty Sessions in the city and at such places in each ward where the lists have been affixed.

Each such revision court shall be an open court, and shall be constituted by one or more of such magistrates.

Procedure at revision courts.

12. (1) The chamber magistrate of the Central Police Court shall at the opening of any such revision court produce the list for the ward and copies of the papers containing the names of the persons claiming to be inserted in the list and of the persons objected to.

Correction of list.

- (2) The magistrate presiding at any such revision court—
- (a) shall remove from the list the name of every person proved to be dead, whether objection has or has not been made under this Act;
  - (b) shall remove from the list the name of every person objected to in pursuance of this Act on the appearance of the person so objecting, or his agent or advocate, and on proof that the person whose name is on the list has not the qualification entitling him to be placed on the roll for the ward;
  - (c) shall insert in the list the name of every person claiming in pursuance of this Act on proof that he has the qualification aforesaid; and
  - (d) shall correct all errors and supply all omissions in such list as to the names, descriptions, and qualifications under this Act of any persons.

Initialling alterations.

(3) The magistrate so presiding shall, in open court, write his initials against any addition to or alteration of the list made as aforesaid.

Roll to be certified.

13. The magistrate presiding as aforesaid shall cause a fair copy to be made of the list as altered or added to in the revision court, and after certifying to the correctness of the same, shall forward it to the town clerk, and such copy shall be the roll for the ward until a new roll is prepared, and shall be prima facie evidence that the roll has been duly made and of the correctness of the contents thereof.

Power of revision court to examine evidence.

14. (1) A revision court shall have power to hear, receive, and examine evidence, and by summons under the hand of the revision clerk to require all such persons as it thinks fit to appear personally before it, at a time and place to be named in such summons, and to produce to the court all such books and papers in their possession or under their control as may appear necessary for the purpose of their examination; and any person so required who, without sufficient excuse, neglects or refuses to comply with such summons, or, having appeared before the said court, refuses without such excuse to take an oath or affirmation, affirmation, or having taken such oath or affirmation, to answer the questions put to him, may be dealt with in all respects as a person refusing or neglecting to appear or to take an oath or affirmation, or to give evidence before a Court of Petty Sessions.

Sydney Corporation (Amending).

(2) If it appears to a revision court that any person has made or attempted to sustain any groundless, frivolous, or vexatious claim or objection, such court may order the payment by such person of any sum not exceeding ten pounds as costs to be paid to any other person in resisting such claim or objection. Any sum so ordered to be paid may, if not paid within the time specified in the order, be recovered before any Court of Petty Sessions in the city by the person named in the order as being entitled thereto.

Frivolous claims or objections.

(3) A revision court may adjourn from time to time, and if one hour after the time appointed for the holding of the court the magistrate is not present the revision clerk may adjourn such court to another hour or day: Provided that no such court shall be adjourned for more than three days at a time until the revision of the list then before it is completed.

Adjournment of court.

15. The municipal council of the city of Sydney shall, after the first election under this Act of a mayor and aldermen, consist of a mayor and aldermen, elected in pursuance of this Act.

Constitution of municipal council.

Retirement and election of mayor and aldermen, and appointment of auditors.

16. On the first day of December, one thousand nine hundred, and on the first day of December in every second year thereafter, there shall be an election of aldermen of the city; and on such election being held, the aldermen then in office shall retire, but may, at such election, be re-elected, if otherwise qualified.

Retirement and election of aldermen.

Any male person on the roll for any ward of the city shall be qualified to be elected as alderman.

17. On the ninth day of December in every year the aldermen shall assemble at the Town Hall for the purpose of electing one of their own number to be mayor of the city for the forthcoming year. The mayor shall enter into office on the first day of January next following his election, and shall hold office until the thirty-first day of December following, and shall be eligible for re-election if still qualified.

Election of mayor.

18. On the first day of December, one thousand nine hundred, the auditors then in office shall retire, and from that day the powers and duties of the auditors as prescribed by the Principal Act and any Act amending the same may be exercised, and shall be performed by such two or more Treasury inspectors as the Colonial Treasurer may from time to time appoint in that behalf.

Auditors.

After

Sydney Corporation (Amending).

After the commencement of this Act, no election to the office of auditor shall be held, and the provisions of the Principal Act and any Act amending the same relating to such election are hereby repealed.

Election of aldermen.

19. There shall be two aldermen for each ward, who shall be elected by the persons on the roll for such ward. The proceedings in, and in connection with such election, shall be in accordance with the provisions of the Principal Act and any Acts amending the same, including this Act, and it shall not be lawful for any candidate, either by himself or his agent, to expend more than fifty pounds in connection with such election, and the details of such expenditure verified by statutory declaration shall be furnished to the town clerk within seven days after the holding of an election.

Election expenses—
Penalty.

20. Any candidate who shall spend more than the said fifty pounds in connection with any such election or shall fail to furnish the details of his expenditure within the time limited in the last preceding section shall be liable to a penalty of twenty pounds, to be recovered in a summary manner in any court of competent jurisdiction, and if elected such election shall be void.

The returning officer.

21. The returning officer for the election of aldermen shall be the town clerk or such other citizen as the Governor may appoint in that behalf, by notification in the Gazette and one or more metropolitan papers; and, notwithstanding the provisions of the Principal Act, all nominations to the office of alderman shall be made to the returning officer. Such returning officer shall, after ascertaining the result of any such election, report the same to the outgoing mayor, who shall declare, in the manner prescribed by the Principal Act with regard to the election of aldermen, the result of any such election.

The returning officer shall appoint, in writing under his hand, presiding officers to conduct such elections within the respective wards of the city, and if any such officer is prevented from attending by unavoidable accident, a substitute with like powers may be appointed in the same manner.

Hours of voting.

22. The voting at every election shall commence at eight o'clock in the morning and shall finally close at six o'clock in the afternoon of the same day, unless adjourned as provided in the Principal Act.

Mode of voting.

23. At every election of aldermen, every voter shall vote for the full number of aldermen to be elected for the ward, otherwise the vote shall be rejected as informal.

Penalties for bribing, intimidation,
&c.

24. The provisions of sections one hundred and thirteen to one hundred and eighteen inclusive, and of sections one hundred and twenty of the Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act of 1893 shall mutatis mutandis apply to all elections held under this Act, and the commission of any of the acts mentioned in the said sections shall render void the election of the person committing such act either by himself or by an agent, agent, and when committed with his knowledge and consent, shall disqualify him from holding or acting in any municipal office during the period of two years next following such commission.

Sydney Corporation (Amending).

Expenses.

25. Any expenses incurred in or in connection with the making out and revising of the lists and printing of the lists and rolls and the election of aldermen shall be paid by the council out of the city fund. Expenses of lists and rolls and elections.

Resumption.

26. (1) It shall be lawful for the council from time to time, in pursuance of the provisions hereinafter mentioned, without further or other authority than this Act, to resume any lands (not being land the property of the Crown), which may be required for the opening of new streets or public places, and the widening or enlarging of streets or public places in the city. If portion only of any parcel of land is so resumed, and if the owner of such parcel of land requires the council to resume the remainder thereof along with the other land required for the purposes of this Act, the council shall resume the same accordingly. For the purposes aforesaid, the council shall have power by their officers or servants to enter upon and survey any lands within their jurisdiction. Resumption of land for municipal purposes.

(2) The council shall cause a notice of the resumption of any land required by them for the purposes of this Act, together with a plan or diagram of the area required, to be served on the owners of such land, and a copy of such plan or diagram shall be deposited with the chief surveyor at the Department of Lands, Sydney. Notice of resumption.

(3) Upon the service of such notice and plan, the land therein described shall for the purposes, and subject to the provisions of this Act, be vested in the council for an absolute estate in fee simple in possession, freed and discharged from all trusts, obligations, estates, interests, contracts, charges, rates, rights of way, or easements whatsoever. Vesting of land.

(4) The owner of any portion of land resumed, or the person who, but for the provisions of this Act, would have been such owner, shall be entitled to receive compensation for the land so resumed, and the amount of such compensation shall be ascertained in accordance with the provisions of the Lands for Public Purposes Acquisition Acts, being the Acts of the forty-fourth Victoria number sixteen, and forty-fifth Victoria number twenty-six. For the purpose of ascertaining and dealing with such compensation, and for other purposes subsidiary thereto, the enactments hereinafter specified are declared to be incorporated with this Act, viz.:—

(a) As to conversion of the estates of owners of lands into a claim to compensation,—Section eleven of the Act forty-fourth Victoria number sixteen. Compensation.

(b)

Act No. 30, 1900.

Sydney Corporation (Amending).

- (b) As to notice of claim for compensation and abstract of title,—Section twelve of the Act forty-fourth Victoria number sixteen, and First Schedule thereto.
- (c) As to procedure after receipt of notice of claim, and the institution of proceedings in the Supreme Court,—Sections thirteen and fourteen of the Act forty-fourth Victoria number sixteen.
- (d) As to the nature of the issue in actions for compensation, verdict and costs, the payment of compensation, the mode of assessing compensation, and the obligation of the party claiming payment to make out a title,—Section sixteen of the Act forty-fourth Victoria number sixteen, section two of the Act forty-fifth Victoria number twenty-six, and section twenty-four of the Public Works Act of 1888: Provided that the interest mentioned in the said section sixteen shall be at the rate of four per centum per annum from the date of service of the notice of resumption, and that the payments therein mentioned shall be made out of the city fund by drafts signed by the mayor and city treasurer.
- (e) As to procedure on registration or transfer—section twenty-four of the Act forty-fourth Victoria number sixteen.

And in order to carry out the intention of this section, the words “ this Act ” whensoever occurring in any of the sections so declared to be incorporated herewith, shall be held to include this present Act, and the words “ under the sixth section of this Act ” in section twenty-four of the Act forty-fourth Victoria number sixteen shall be held, for the like purpose, to refer to the present section of this Act; and there shall be substituted for the words “ Minister ” and “ Crown Solicitor ” wherever occurring in the said sections the words “ mayor ” and “ city solicitor ” respectively.

Incorporation of provisions of Public Works Act.

(5) The several sections of the Public Works Act of 1888, hereinafter specified, together with the respective powers, authorities, duties, liabilities, obligations, and other the provisions therein contained, are hereby declared to be incorporated with, and embodied in this Act to the intent that the same may be applied as fully and effectually to, and in respect of, the lands resumed under this Act as if the said sections had been specifically enacted herein: Provided that, wheresoever in any section so incorporated the words “ Constructing Authority ” occur, there shall, for the purposes of this Act, be substituted in lieu of such words, the expression “ council ”; the expression “ authorised work,” wheresoever occurring in any such section shall be held to refer to the work authorised by this Act; and the words “ this Act ” shall similarly be

be held to refer to "this present Act." The following are the sections of the said Public Works Act so declared to be incorporated herewith—

- (a) As to the deposit of compensation money in certain cases with the master in equity, and the application and investment thereof; as to payment of such money in certain cases to trustees, or to the parties themselves, the exoneration of the Constructing Authority in respect thereof after payment, the presumption of ownership, and the payment of costs,—Sections sixty-two to seventy-two, both inclusive.
- (b) As to the procedure by the constructing authority in case the owner or occupier of any lands resumed under this Act refuses to give up possession thereof, or hinders the constructing authority from entering upon, or taking possession of the same,—Section seventy-seven.
- (c) As to the purchase or redemption of the interests of mortgages, and the deposit of principal and interest due on mortgages with the master in equity, the procedure to be observed when the mortgaged lands are of less value than the mortgage debt, and where part only of lands in mortgage is taken,—Sections eighty-one to eighty-six, both inclusive.
- (d) As to the release of lands from rent charges and other incumbrances, and the procedure thereon,—Sections eighty-seven to ninety, both inclusive.
- (e) As to the apportionment of rent where lands so resumed are taken under lease, and as to compensation to tenants,—Sections ninety-one to ninety-four, both inclusive.

27. In addition to the power of resuming land conferred by the last preceding section the council may purchase from any person who may be willing to sell the same in fee simple, or for any less estate or interest, any land which the council may require for any of the purposes in that section mentioned. Power to purchase lands.

28. The council may contract for and sell or lease for such considerations as they may deem reasonable, and by any deed under their corporate seal may convey to the purchasers or lessees thereof, any superfluous lands or any estate or interest of the council in such lands, or any part thereof, in such manner as they may deem most advantageous; and such contracts, sales, leases, and conveyances from the council shall be valid and effectual to all intents and purposes; and the money produced by all such sales or leases shall be carried to and form part of the city fund. Sale or lease of superfluous lands.

Appointment

Act No. 30, 1900.

Sydney Corporation (Amending).Appointment of inspector of nuisances or sanitary inspector.

Appointment of inspector of nuisances or sanitary inspector.

29. The council may nominate any person or persons for the position of inspector of nuisances or sanitary inspector of the city, and the Governor may appoint any person so nominated at such salary as he thinks fit. On such appointment being so made one half of such salary shall be payable out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund and one half by the council.
