Superannuation (Defence Service) Amendment Act.

3

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

No. 2, 1951.

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Superannuation (Defence Service) Amendment Act, 1951."

Short title and citation.

(2) The Superannuation Act, 1916, as amended by subsequent Acts and by this Act, may be cited as the Superannuation Act, 1916-1951.

2. The Superannuation Act, 1916, as amended by subsequent Acts, is amended:—

Amendment of Act No.
28, 1916.

(a) by inserting next after paragraph (i) of the proviso to subsection one of section twelve the following new paragraph:—

Sect. 12.
(Scale of units of contributions).

(j) Notwithstanding paragraph (h) of this proviso an employee who is engaged on defence service may elect to contribute for additional units of pension on account of any increase or of all increases of salary to which he may become entitled within the period during which he is engaged on defence service notwithstanding that the increased rate of salary is not actually paid within that period; and in such case the employer shall contribute in respect of the like number of units.

An election under this paragraph may be made by an employee who became engaged on defence service before as well as by an employee who becomes engaged on defence service after the commencement of the Superannuation (Defence Service) Amendment Act, 1951.

The right of election conferred by this paragraph shall be in addition to the right of election conferred by paragraph (e) of this proviso.

Any election under this paragraph shall be in writing and shall take effect from the date upon which it is received into the office of the Board.

Contributions

Suitors' Fund Act.*No. 2, 1951.

Contributions for additional units under this paragraph shall take effect from the first day of the month or four-weekly contribution period, as the case may be, in which the election is received into the office of the Board or in which the employee becomes entitled to the increase, whichever is the later.

For the purposes of this paragraph an employee shall be deemed to be engaged on defence service if:—

- (a) he is enlisted in the Australian Regular Army Special Force;
  - (b) he is serving as a member of the Naval, Military or Air Forces of the Commonwealth of Australia.
- (b) by omitting from section 30A the words “of the proviso to” and by inserting in lieu thereof the words “or (j) of the proviso to subsection one of.”

Sec. 30A.
(Special provisions in the case of employees on war or defence service).
