

1992—No. 334

STATE ROADS AND TRAFFIC (OFFENCES AND PENALTIES) AMENDMENT ACT 1991 No. 24—PROCLAMATION

NEW SOUTH WALES

[Published in Gazette No. 75 of 26 June 1992]

I, Rear Admiral PETER ROSS SINCLAIR, Governor of the State of New South Wales, with the advice of the Executive Council, and in pursuance of section. 2 (1) of the state Roads and Traffic (Offences and Penalties) Amendment Act 1991, do, by this my Proclamation, appoint 1 July 1992 as the day on which that Act (except Schedule 1 (8) to that Act, and so much of Schedule 3 to that Act as amends the Local Government Act 1919) commences.

Signed and Sealed at Sydney, this 24th day of June, 1992.

By His Excellency's Command,

WAL MURRAY
Deputy Premier and Minister for Roads.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This Proclamation commences the uncommenced portion of the State Roads and Traffic (Offences and Penalties) Amendment Act 1991, except for a provision amending the Local Government Act 1919. (That provision has been repealed by the Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1992.)

The Act:

- (a) appropriates to the Roads and Traffic Authority Fund the proceeds of fines and penalties recovered for offences against the State Roads Act 1986 and the regulations under that Act; and
 - (b) amends the law relating to the liability of vehicle owners and lessees for contraventions of that Act and those regulations; and
 - (c) makes provision allowing for the cancellation of licences and vehicle registrations in the case of default in payment of fines and penalties for offences against that Act and those regulations.
