- (3) The Act applies to the residential tenancy agreement after the first 30 days unless either the park owner or the resident has notified the other party that the Act is not to apply until a later date specified in the notification, but that date cannot be later than 60 days after the occupation commenced. If the occupation continues after the notified date the Act then applies to the residential tenancy agreement.

In its application to residential premises consisting of a site on which a moveable dwelling is situated or intended to be situated, or of a moveable dwelling and a site, section 19 of the Act is to be read as if the words "electricity, gas, excess water" were omitted and the words "excess water, where sites are individually metered by the relevant water supply authority, electricity, gas" were inserted instead.

- (2) Such a record may be in the form of a pay advice slip but, if the pay advice slip does not specify the period for which the rent is paid, the exemption does not apply unless the park owner, on the request of the resident, makes information concerning that period available to the resident.

PART 3—RESIDENTIAL TENANCY AGREEMENTS

Standard form of residential tenancy agreement: sec. 8

- 15. (1) The standard form of residential tenancy agreement is:

- (b) in the case of an agreement which creates a tenancy for a term exceeding 3 years and is a residential site agreement to which Schedule 3 to the Act applies—the form set out in Schedule 2; or
- (c) in the case of an agreement which creates a tenancy for a term of up to 3 years and is a moveable dwelling agreement—the form set out in Schedule 3; or
- (d) in the case of an agreement which creates a tenancy for a term exceeding 3 years and is a moveable dwelling agreement—the form set out in Schedule 4.
- (2) The standard form of residential tenancy agreement set out in Schedule 2 or 4 for residential premises that are not Crown reserves must be in a form approved by the Registrar-General for registration under the Real Property Act 1900.
- (3) When this Regulation is amended by altering, adding or substituting a standard form of residential tenancy agreement, the amendment does not apply to a residential tenancy agreement entered into before the commencement of the amendment.
 - (4) In this clause:
 - "moveable dwelling agreement" means a residential tenancy agreement for premises that consist of a site on which a moveable dwelling is situated or intended to be situated, or of a moveable dwelling and a site, but does not include a residential site agreement to which Schedule 3 to the Act applies;

"residential site agreement" means a residential tenancy agreement under which the park owner grants to the resident a right to install:

- (a) a relocatable home; or
- (b) a caravan, or campervan, with a rigid annexe attached to it, on a residential site (being a relocatable home, caravan or campervan owned by the resident) and to use it as a residence, whether or not the right is a right of exclusive occupation.

Note: Schedule 3 to the Act applies to all residential site agreements other than the following:

- (a) an agreement made in good faith for the purpose of giving a person a right to install a dwelling on a residential site and to use the dwelling as a residence, for a period of not more than 2 months, for the purpose of a holiday;
- (b) an agreement under which the resident is a person whose principal place of residence is elsewhere than the residential site;
- (c) an agreement with respect to land within a Crown reserve entered into after the commencement of the Schedule, other than an agreement arising from a lease or licence under section 102 of the Crown Lands Act 1989 to which the Minister administering the Act has granted consent;
- (d) an agreement with respect to land within a National Parks and Wildlife reserve.

Provision of information to resident

16. Maximum penalty: 1 penalty unit.

(2) It is sufficient compliance with this clause if the park manager provides the resident with a copy of that publication.

Condition report: sec. 8 (4)

- 17. (1) The condition report relating to the condition of residential premises contained or referred to in a standard form of residential tenancy agreement:
 - (a) must be completed by or on behalf of the park owner at or before the time the agreement is given to the resident for signing; and
 - (b) must be given in duplicate by the park owner to the resident at or before the time that the resident signs the agreement.
- (2) The resident must complete and give one copy of the condition report to the park owner not later than 7 days after receiving it.

- (3) At, or as soon as reasonably practicable after, the termination of a residential tenancy agreement entered into in the standard form, both the park owner and resident must complete the copy of the condition report retained by the park owner or the resident under this clause, in the presence of the other party.
- (4) It is not a breach of subclause (3) for the condition report to be completed in the absence of the other party if the party completing the report has given the other party a reasonable opportunity to be present when it is completed.

Exemptions from obligation to include a condition report

- 18. The following classes of residential tenancy agreements are exempt from the operation of section 8 (4) of the Act (which requires a prescribed standard form of residential tenancy agreement to include a condition report):
 - (a) a residential tenancy agreement that creates a tenancy for a term of more than 3 years;
 - Note: The registrable standard forms of residential tenancy agreements that create tenancies for a term of more than 3 years do not include a condition report, but the standard forms (set out in Schedules 2 and 4) require such a condition report, which must be completed in the usual manner. The condition report does not have to be registered.
 - (b) a residential tenancy agreement which is a renewed agreement (that is, an agreement made on or before the termination of a previous agreement entered into by the same resident in respect of the same residential premises) where:
 - (i) that or any other previous residential tenancy agreement entered into by the resident included a condition report for the premises; and
 - (ii) the renewed agreement provides for such a condition report to form part of the renewed agreement; and
 - (iii) the tenant's occupation of the premises has been continuous since entering into occupation of the premises under the agreement that included that condition report.

- 20. (1) For the purposes of section 19 of the Act, the prescribed charges are any of the following charges:

 - (c) any excess garbage or sanitary charges relating to the resident's use of the residential premises.
- (2) This clause does not apply to a residential tenancy agreement entered into before the commencement of this clause. When this clause is amended, the amendment does not apply to a residential tenancy agreement entered into before the commencement of the amendment.

 - (ii) if the entering into of the residential tenancy agreement is conditional on the park owner carrying out repairs or other work and the park owner does not carry out the repairs or other work during the specified period, the whole of the fee will be refunded; and
 - if the prospective resident decides not to enter into such an agreement, and the premises were not let or otherwise occupied during the period they were reserved, the park owner may retain so much of the fee as is equal to the amount of rent that would have been paid during the period the premises were reserved (based on the proposed rent) but is required to refund the remainder (if any) of the fee; and
 - (v) if a residential tenancy agreement is entered into, the fee is to be paid towards rent for the residential premises concerned.
- (2) A reservation fee must not be required of a person who is a resident in respect of the residential premises and must not be received from such a person.

Uncollected goods

23. Goods that have been left on residential premises by the resident after the resident vacates the premises become "uncollected goods" for the purposes of this Part when the resident vacates the premises unless the resident vacates the premises before the residential tenancy agreement is terminated, in which case the goods become uncollected goods when the agreement is terminated. Uncollected goods may be disposed of as provided by this Part, but only if the requirements of this Part are complied with.

- 24. (1) Uncollected goods that have not been removed from the residential premises by the resident within 2 working days after they become uncollected goods are to be dealt with as provided by this clause.
- (2) The goods are to be stored in a safe place by the park owner unless the goods are disposed of as authorised by this clause.
- (3) If the goods are perishable foodstuffs, the park owner may remove and destroy or otherwise dispose of the goods.
- (4) If the park owner is reasonably of the opinion that it would cost more to remove, store and sell the goods than the goods are worth, the park owner may remove and destroy or otherwise dispose of the goods.
- (5) If the residential premises consist of a moveable dwelling site, and the goods left on the premises include a moveable dwelling, the park owner may store any other goods in the moveable dwelling and may store the moveable dwelling on the site.
 - (6) In this clause:
 - "working day" means any day that is not a Saturday, Sunday or public holiday.

Notice to resident that goods are in storage

- 25. (1) When goods are stored by the park owner, the park owner must give the resident written notice that the goods have been stored. The notice must also be published in a newspaper circulating generally throughout the State. The notice must be given and published within 7 days after the goods are stored.
- (2) The notice may (in addition to any other way in which it may be given) be given to the resident by being sent by post to the resident at the last forwarding address known to the park owner.
- (3) The notice may instead of being given to the resident be given to a representative nominated by the resident before the resident vacated the residential premises.

- (4) The notice must contain the following:

- (b) the resident's name;

Uncollected goods may be auctioned

- 26. (1) As soon as practicable after uncollected goods have been stored by the park owner in accordance with this Part for 30 days, the park owner is to cause them to be sold by public auction.
- (2) The park owner is required to account to the resident for the balance of the proceeds of the sale of the goods after deduction of the reasonable costs of removal, storage and sale of the goods.

Claiming uncollected goods

- 27. (1) A person who is entitled to possession of goods left on residential premises may claim the goods at any time before they are destroyed, sold or otherwise disposed of under this Part.
- (2) The park owner must deliver up the goods to a person who claim them if the park owner is satisfied that the person is entitled to claim them.
- (3) The park owner is entitled to require payment of the park owner's costs and expenses actually incurred in the removal and storage of goods (not exceeding a reasonable amount for those costs and expenses), before delivering goods to a person under this clause.
- (4) If a claim is for some but not all of the goods, and the remaining goods are worth enough to cover the reasonable costs of removal and storage of all of the goods, the park owner must deliver up the claimed goods to the claimant without requiring payment of the park owner's reasonable costs of removal and storage of the claimed goods.

PART 6—SERVICE

Service of documents generally: sec. 130

- 28. (1) This clause applies to all notices or other documents (including summonses but not including notices of termination) required to be given under the Act, this Regulation or the Residential Tenancies (Tribunal) Regulation 1995.

 - 12.8 if electricity, water or gas is supplied to the resident by the park owner, to inspect and read an electricity, water or gas meter situated on the residential site; or
 - 12.9 if the resident agrees.
- 13. If a person has power to enter the residential site under clause 12.4, 12.5, 12.6, 12.7 or 12.8 of this agreement the person:

- 14. Except in an emergency, a person other than the park owner or the park manager must produce to the resident the park owner's or the park manager's written permission to enter the residential site.

CLEANLINESS, REPAIRS AND DAMAGE TO THE RESIDENTIAL SITE

Note: The condition report that forms part of this agreement is the condition report set out in Part 2 of this agreement unless:

- the agreement is a renewed agreement; and
- the park owner and resident have agreed that clause 28 of this agreement applies; and
- a date has been inserted in clause 28, in which case the specified earlier condition report forms part of this agreement.
- 16.5 to ensure that the moveable dwelling complies with any provisions of the Local Government (Approvals) Regulation 1993 with which it is required to comply.

ALTERATIONS AND ADDITIONS TO THE RESIDENTIAL SITE

- 17.2 not to remove, without the park owner's written permission, any fixture attached by the resident; and
- 17.3 to notify the park owner of any damage caused by removing any fixture attached by the resident; and
- 17.4 to repair any damage caused by removing the fixture or compensate the park owner for the cost of repair, if the park owner asks.
- 18. The park owner agrees to compensate the resident as soon as possible for the value of a fixture attached by the resident if the park owner refuses to allow its removal.

RESIDENT'S RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE ACTIONS OF OTHERS

- 20.2 that the park owner may not unreasonably withhold or refuse consent to the assignment or subletting; and
- 20.3 that the park owner will not make any charge for giving such a consent, otherwise than for the park owner's reasonable expenses in giving consent.

PARK OWNER'S CHANGE OF ADDRESS

- 21.1 if the residential address of the park owner changes (and the park owner has not appointed a park manager), to give the resident notice in writing of the change within 14 days; and
- 21.2 if the name or business address of the park manager changes or the park owner appoints a park manager, to give the resident notice in writing of the change or the park manager's name or business address, as appropriate, within 14 days; and
- 21.3 if the park owner or park manager is a corporation and the name of the secretary or other responsible agent of the corporation changes or the address of the registered office of the corporation changes, to give the resident notice in writing of the change within 14 days.

SIGN ADVERTISING SALE OF MOVEABLE DWELLING

- 22. The park owner agrees that the resident may display a "for sale" sign within the resident's moveable dwelling.
- 23. The resident agrees to notify the park owner of the resident's intention to sell the moveable dwelling before displaying any "for sale" sign. (Additional terms may be agreed to, dealing with the size of the sign, the display of the sign outside the moveable dwelling, etc.)

MITIGATION OF LOSS

24. The rules of law relating to mitigation of loss or damage on breach of a contract apply to a breach of this agreement. (For example, if the resident breaches this agreement the park owner will not be able to claim damages for loss which could have been avoided by reasonable effort by the park owner.)

RENTAL BOND

25. The park owner agrees that where the park owner or the park manager apply to the Rental Bond Board or the Residential Tenancies Tribunal for payment of the whole or part of the rental bond to the park owner, then the park owner or the park manager will provide the resident with details of the amount claimed and with copies of any quotations, accounts and receipts that are relevant to the claim.

PROVISION OF COPY OF PARK RULES

26. The park owner agrees to give the resident a copy of the park rules at or before the time this agreement is signed and given by the resident to the park owner or a person on the park owner's behalf. (The park rules are those rules with which residents of the caravan park are expected by the park's owner or manager to comply. They cannot be changed unless the change is in accordance with the Caravan and Relocatable Home Park Industry Code of Practice prescribed under section 75 of the Fair Trading Act 1987.)

DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION

27. The resident confirms that the questions and answers attached to this agreement are the same as those questions and answers given to the resident by the owner of the caravan park before the resident signed this agreement, in accordance with the disclosure provisions of the Caravan and Relocatable Home Park Industry Code of Practice prescribed under section 75 of the Fair Trading Act 1987 and, in particular, Schedule A to that Code of Practice.

AGREEMENT TO USE PREVIOUS CONDITION REPORT

28. The park owner and resident agree that the condition report included in a residential site agreement entered into by the resident and dated (insert a date if the park owner and resident agree to this clause) forms part of this agreement.

ADDITIONAL TERMS

Additional terms may be included in this agreement if:

- (a) both the park owner and resident agree to the terms; and
- (b) they do not conflict with the Residential Tenancies Act 1987 or any other Act; and
- (c) they do not conflict with the standard term of this agreement.

ANY ADDITIONAL TERMS ARE NOT REQUIRED BY LAW AND ARE NEGOTIABLE.

ADDITIONAL TERM ABOUT WATER (Cross out this clause if it is not applicable)

29. The resident agrees to pay for all water used during the term of the agreement (in addition to any excess water for which the tenant has agreed to pay under clause 5.3) where the dwelling or site is individually metered, the charge for the water is calculated according to the metered amount of water consumed and there is no minimum rate chargeable.

NOTES

Definitions

- 1. In this agreement:
- "park manager" means a person who acts as the agent of the park owner and who (whether or not the person carries on any other business) carries on business as an agent for:
 - (a) the letting of residential sites; or
 - (b) the collection of rents payable for any tenancy of a residential site;
- "park owner" means the person who grants the right to occupy a residential site under this agreement, and includes the person's heirs, executors, administrators and assigns;
- "park rules" means the rules with which residents of a residential park are expected by its owner to comply;
- "regulations" means regulations under the Residential Tenancies Act 1987;
- "rental bond" means money paid by the resident as security to carry out this agreement;
- "resident" means the person who has the right to occupy a residential site under this agreement, and includes the person's heirs, executors, administrators and assigns;
- "residential park" means a caravan park or manufactured home estate;
- "residential site" means a site within a residential park that is used, or is intended to be used, for the installation of a dwelling;
- "tenancy" means the right to occupy a residential site under this agreement.

Termination of an agreement by the resident

2. This agreement can be terminated by the resident if the resident gives at least 30 days written notice to the park owner. The notice cannot be given before the expiry of any fixed term period of this agreement.

Termination of an agreement by the park owner

- 3. (1) This agreement can be terminated by the park owner but only in limited circumstances.
- (2) A notice of termination may only be given to a resident who rents a site for the following reasons:
 - (a) if the resident is more than 14 days in arrears of rent (in which case the resident must be given at least 14 days to vacate the site);
 - (b) if the resident seriously or persistently breaches any term of the tenancy agreement (in which case the resident must be given at least 14 days to vacate the site);
 - (c) if the dwelling is considered by the park owner to be in a seriously dilapidated condition (in which case the resident must first be given a warning notice to fix up the dwelling within 90 days, and a second 30 days' notice if they do not comply with the first warning. If the dwelling is still dilapidated, a termination notice with at least 60 days' notice may be given);

- (d) if the site is to be used, whether by the park owner or some other person, for a purpose other than as a residential site (in which case a minimum 180 days' termination notice must be given, or 12 months for Crown reserves). A resident cannot be requested to move out for this reason before the end of any remaining fixed term period of this agreement);
- (e) if the park owner needs vacant possession of the site to comply with a requirement (e.g. by a local council) to carry out repairs or upgrading to the site (in which case the resident must be given at least 90 days' termination notice). A resident cannot be requested to move out before the end of any remaining fixed term period of this agreement).
- (3) A park owner may request that a resident relocate to another site within the park or some other park operated by the owner close by, or the parties may agree to relocate. At least 90 days' notice must be given if a resident is requested to relocate, but it cannot be given before the end of any remaining fixed term period of this agreement. The resident relocates under the same terms and conditions (e.g. rent) that applied to the previous site.

Notices of termination

- 4. (1) A notice of termination must:
 - (a) be in writing; and
 - (b) state the address of the residential site; and
 - (c) be signed and dated; and
 - (d) allow the required period of time; and
 - (e) give the date the resident intends to, or is requested to, move out on; and
 - (f) give the reasons for ending the agreement (if any); and
 - (g) be properly given.
- (2) If the notice is given by a park owner or park manager, the notice must state that "information about the resident's rights and obligations can be found in the tenancy agreement".

How Notices are properly given

- 5. (1) A notice of termination given to a resident may be:
 - (a) posted to the resident's residence; or
- (b) given to the resident personally; or
- (c) given to a person aged over 16 who normally pays the rent; or
- (d) given to a person aged over 16 at the residential site to pass on to the resident.
- (2) A notice of termination given to a park owner may be:
 - (a) posted to the park owner's residence; or
- (b) given to she park owner (or to the park manager) personally; or
- (c) posted or faxed to the park manager's place of business; or
- (d) given to a person aged over 16 who normally collects the Pent.

Compensation

6. Compensation is payable to a resident who has to vacate premises because of a change of use, repairs or upgrading, and to a resident who has to relocate.

Vacant possession

7. A notice of termination does not end the tenancy by itself. The resident must return vacant possession of the premises to the park owner, on or after the day specified in the notice, for the tenancy to end. An application may be made to the Residential Tenancies Tribunal if the resident does not vacate when required.

Warning

8. It is an offence for any person to obtain possession of the premises without an order of the Residential Tenancies Tribunal, if the resident does not willingly move out. Fines and compensation can be ordered by a court in relation to such offences.

Rent increases

- 9. (1) The park owner cannot increase the rent during the fixed term unless the agreement sets out the amount of the increase or the method of calculating the amount of the rent increase.
- (2) The resident must get 60 days' notice in writing if the park owner wants to increase the rent. This applies even when the agreement provides for, or permits, a rent increase. Where a notice of an increase has been given and the park owner and resident subsequently agree to a lesser increase than in the notice, the park owner does not need to give a further 60 days' notice.
- (3) The resident can apply to the Residential Tenancies Tribunal within 30 days of getting the notice of the rent increase for an order that the rent increase is excessive, having regard to the general market level of rents for similar premises in similar locations.
- (4) If the park owner has reduced or withdrawn any goods, services or facilities, the resident can at any time apply to the Tribunal for an order that the rent is excessive.

THE PARK OWNER AND RESIDENT ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT (INCLUDING THE CONDITION REPORT) AND AGREE TO ALL ITS TERMS.

26. The rules of law relating to mitigation of loss or damage on breach of a contract apply to a breach of this agreement. 30. NOTES

Definitions

- 1. In this agreement:
- "park manager" means a person who acts as the agent of the park owner and who (whether or not the person carries on any other business) carries on business as an agent for:
 - (a) the letting of residential premises; or
 - (b) the collection of rents payable for any tenancy of residential premises;
- "park owner" means the person who grants the right to occupy residential premises under this agreement, and includes the person's heirs, executors, administrators and assigns;
- "regulations" means regulations under the Residential Tenancies Act 1987;
- "rental bond" means money paid by the resident as security to carry out this agreement;
- "resident" means the person who has the right to occupy residential premises under this agreement, and includes the person's heirs, executors, administrators and assigns.
- "residential premises" means a site on which a moveable dwelling is situated or intended to be situated, or a moveable dwelling and a site, used or intended to be used as a place of residence;
- "tenancy" means the right to occupy residential premises under this agreement;

Notes on ending the tenancy

2. The first step to end a tenancy is, almost always, for the park owner or the resident to give a notice of termination. The tenancy ends when the resident moves out, on or after the day specified in the notice or when the Residential Tenancies Tribunal orders the tenancy to end.

Notices of termination

- 3. (1) A notice of termination must:
 - (a) be in writing; and
- (b) state the address of the rented premises; and
- (c) be signed and dated; and
- (d) allow the required period of time; and
- (e) give the date the resident intends to, or is requested to, move out on; and
- (f) give the reasons for ending the agreement (if any); and
- (g) be properly given.
- (2) If the notice is given by or on behalf of a park owner, the notice must state that "information about the resident's rights and obligations can be found in the tenancy agreement".

How notices are properly given

- 4. (1) A notice of termination given to a resident may be:
 - (a) posted to the resident's home; or
 - (b) given to the resident personally; or
 - (c) given to a person aged over 16 who normally pays the rent; or
 - (d) given to a person aged over 16 at the premises to pass on to the resident.
- (2) A Notice of Termination given to a park owner may be:
 - (a) posted to the park owner's address; or
- (b) give to the park owner (or to the park manager) personally; or
- (c) posted or faxed to the park manager's place of business; or
- (d) given to a person aged over 16 who normally collects the rent.

When and how much notice can be given?

- 5. (1) When and how much notice can be given depends on the type of residential tenancy agreement and the reasons for giving notice.
- (2) There are 2 types of agreements "fixed term agreements" and "continuing agreements";
 - (a) a "fixed term agreement" is one that is for a specified period of time and ends on a specified date. If the date this agreement is due to end (see page 1 of this agreement) has not passed you are still on a fixed term agreement;
 - (b) a "continuing agreement" does not end on a specified date. These agreements usually begin when a fixed term agreement expires and a new one is not entered into, although an agreement can be a continuing one from the beginning.

How to end a fixed term agreement

6. A fixed term agreement may be ended for the following reasons, provided that at least 14 days' notice is given:

- (a) if the resident breaks one of the agreement's terms;
- (b) if the resident is more than 14 days in arrears of rent;
- (c) if the park owner breaks one of the agreement's terms;
- (d) if the park owner or resident want to end the tenancy at the end of a fixed term agreement (in which case, notice can be given until the final day of the fixed term period, otherwise the agreement becomes a continuing agreement).

How to end a continuing agreement

- 7. (1) Unlike fixed term agreements, the amount of notice that a resident or a park owner must give to end a continuing agreement is not always the same.
 - (2) A continuing agreement may be ended by a park owner in the following ways:
 - (a) without stating a reason (in which case at least 60 days' notice must be given);
 - (b) on exchange of a sale contract that requires vacant possession of the rented premises (in which case at least 30 days' notice must be given);
 - (c) if the resident breaks one of the agreement's terms or is more than 14 days in arrears of rent (in which case at least 14 days' notice must be given).
 - (3) A continuing agreement may be ended by a resident:
 - (a) without reason (in which case at least 21 days' notice must be given); or
 - (b) if the park owner breaks one of the agreement's terms (in which case at least 14 days' notice must be given).

Vacant possession

8. A notice of termination does not end the tenancy by itself. The resident must return vacant possession of the premises to the park owner, on or after the day specified in the notice, for the tenancy to end. An application may be made to the Residential Tenancies Tribunal if the resident does not vacate when required.

Warning

9. It is an offence for any person to obtain possession of the premises without an order of the Residential Tenancies Tribunal, if the resident does not willingly move out. Fines and compensation can be ordered by a court in relation to such offences.

Rent increases

- 10. (1) The park owner cannot increase the rent during the fixed term unless the agreement sets out the amount of the increase or the method of calculating the amount of the rent increase.
- (2) The resident must get 60 days' notice in writing if the park owner wants to increase the rent. This applies even when the agreement provides for, or permits, a rent increase. Where a notice of an increase has been given and the park owner and resident subsequently agree to a lesser increase than in the notice, the park owner does not need to give a further 60 days' notice.

- (3) The resident can apply to the Residential Tenancies Tribunal within 30 days of getting the notice of the rent increase for an order that the rent increase is excessive, having regard to the general market level of rent for similar premises in similar locations.
- (4) If the park owner has reduced or withdrawn any goods, services or facilities, the resident can at any time apply to the Tribunal for an order that the rent is excessive.

THE PARK OWNER AND RESIDENT ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT (WHICH INCLUDES THE CONDITION REPORT) AND AGREE TO ALL ITS TERMS.

PART 2 RESIDENTIAL PREMISES CONDITION REPORT

ADDRES	SS OF PRI	EMISES:

HOW TO COMPLETE

- 1. Three copies of this condition report are filled out and signed by the park owner or the park manager.
- 2. The park owner or the park manager records the condition of the residential premises by indicating whether the particular room item is clean, undamaged and working by placing "Y" (YES) or "N" (NO) in the appropriate column (see example). [If the residential premises consist only of a site, only that part of the condition report headed SITE needs to be completed in this way.]
- 3. Two copies of the report which have been filled in and signed by the park owner or the park manager are given to the resident at or before the time of entering into the agreement. The landlord keeps the third copy.
- 4. The resident indicates agreement or disagreement with the condition indicated by the park owner or park manager by placing "Y" (YES) or "N" (NO) in the appropriate columns (see example below).
- 5. The resident returns one copy of the completed condition report to the park owner or park manager and keeps the second copy.
- 6. At, or as soon as practicable after, the termination of a residential tenancy agreement, both the park owner and resident should complete the copy of the condition report that they retained, indicating the condition of the premises at the end of the tenancy. This should be done in the presence of the other party, unless the other party has been given a reasonable opportunity to be present and has not attended the inspection.

IMPORTANT NOTES ABOUT THIS REPORT

- 1. This condition report is an important record of the condition of the premises when the tenancy begins.
- 2. At the end of the tenancy the premises will be inspected and the condition of the premises at that time will be compared to that stated in the original condition report.
- 3. It is important to complete the condition report accurately. It may be vital if there is a dispute, particularly about the return of the rental bond money and any damage to the premises.
- 4. If the resident disagrees with the park owner's condition report this must be confirmed in writing, preferably on the condition report, either by placing "N" (NO) in the appropriate column and by making an appropriate comment alongside that column.
- 5. The Residential Tenancies Tribunal has the power to hear disputes about the validity of a condition report.
