I, Rear Admiral PETER ROSS SINCLAIR, A.C., Governor of the State of New South Wales, with the advice of the Executive Council, and in pursuance of Schedule 1 to the Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act (No. 2) 1991, do, by this my Proclamation, appoint 1 September 1993 as the day on which the amendment to the Dried Fruits Act 1939 set out in that Schedule commences.

Signed and sealed at Sydney, this 25 day of August 1993.

By His Excellency's Command,

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The object of this Proclamation is to commence the amendment to the Dried Fruits Act 1939 contained in the Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act (No. 2) 1991. At present, a person in whose name a packing house is registered is required to contribute a sum of money determined by the Dried Fruits Board towards the expenditure estimated to be incurred in the administration of the Act and in carrying out the powers and duties of the Board for a particular year. That sum is not to exceed an amount equal to $10 per tonne of the dried fruit sold from the packing house. The amendment provides that the levy is to be based on the quantity of dried fruit received at the packing house, and that the sum contributed is not to exceed $15 per tonne of dried fruit so received.
