

NORTHERN TERRITORY OF AUSTRALIA

Regulations 1983, No. 14*

By-laws under the Territory Parks and Wildlife Conservation Act

The Conservation Commission of the Northern Territory in pursuance of section 71 of the Territory Parks and Wildlife Conservation Act, at a meeting held on the fourth day of March, 1983, made the following by-laws and, for the purposes of section 63(2) of the Interpretation Act, authorized GODFREY ALAN LETTS, its Chairman, to sign them.

Dated this fourth day of March, 1983.

G.A. LETTS
Chairman

ALICE SPRINGS TELEGRAPH STATION HISTORICAL
RESERVE (CLOSURE) BY-LAWS

1. EXPIRATION OF BY-LAWS

These By-laws shall expire on 22 March, 1983.

2. CLOSURE OF RESERVE

Notwithstanding anything contained in any other By-law under this Act, no person shall, on 21 March 1983, enter or remain on the Alice Springs Telegraph Station Historical Reserve (formally called the Alice Springs Telegraph Station National Park) declared on 30 June, 1978, under section 12 of the Act, to be a reserve, except with and in accordance with the authority of the Commission.

Penalty: $500.

* Notified in the Northern Territory Government Gazette on 11 March, 1983.

