Admission of person released upon recognizance.

13. Section 16 of the principal Act is repealed and re-enacted as follows :—

16. A person who is released by a court upon a recognizance pursuant to subsection (1) or subsection (2) of section 14 of this Act shall, if the court so orders, be escorted by a member of the police force or a person authorized in that behalf by the Board to such voluntary centre as the court directs and shall be admitted for treatment to that centre.

Amendment of principal Act, s. 18.

14. Section 18 of the principal Act is amended by striking out subsection (1) and inserting in lieu thereof the following subsection :—

(1) Any person who, being a patient of an institution—

(a) escapes from that institution or, without authority of the Board or the superintendent or person in charge of the institution, is absent from or leaves the institution ; or

(b) escapes from or, without authority of the Board or the superintendent or person in charge of the institution, leaves the custody of any person under whose care or charge he has been placed pursuant to any order made or direction or permission given under this Act, may, without further or other authority than this Act, be retaken by the superintendent or person in charge or any other officer of the Board or any member of the police force or by any person authorized in that behalf by the Board or the superintendent or person in charge, and returned to the institution or to his former custody, as the case may be.

Amendment of principal Act, s. 19.

15. Section 19 of the principal Act is amended by striking out subsection (2) of that section and inserting in lieu thereof the following subsection :—

(2) For the purposes of this section, any order or direction made or given by the superintendent or person in charge of an institution to an officer of that institution under whose care or charge a patient has for the time being been placed shall be deemed to be an order or direction made or given under this Act.

16. Section 20 of the principal Act is repealed and re-enacted as follows :—

Repeal and re-enactment of s. 20 of principal Act—

20. (1) Where the superintendent or person in charge of an institution is satisfied that a patient is in need of medical, dental, or other treatment which cannot be provided at the institution, he may cause the patient to be removed to any hospital or other establishment or institution for such treatment.

Removal of patient to hospital or other establishment.

(2) A patient may be escorted by the superintendent or person in charge or any other person authorized by the superintendent or person in charge to and from such hospital or other establishment or institution and detained there for treatment, and shall be deemed to be in lawful custody while being so escorted or detained.

17. Subsection (1) of section 21 of the principal Act is struck out and the following subsection is inserted in lieu thereof :—

Amendment of principal Act, s. 21—

(1) The Board may cause a patient to be transferred from one institution to another, but shall not cause a patient to be transferred from a voluntary centre to a committal centre, unless he has been committed thereto pursuant to this Act.

Transfer of patient from one institution to another.

18. Section 24 of the principal Act is amended by striking out from subsection (1) the passage commencing with the word "Where" and ending with the words "respond to" and inserting in lieu thereof the following passage :—
