

ANNO TRICESIMO TERTIO ET TRICESIMO QUARTO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

A.D. 1870.

No. 10.

An Act to amend the Laws of the Customs in South Australia.

[Assented to, 12th October, 1870.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to alter the duties of Customs imposed in the Province of South Australia, in manner hereinafter provided—Be it therefore Enacted by the Governor of the Province of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly of the said Province, in this present Parliament assembled, as follows: Preamble.

1. Act No. 6 of 1863, intituled “An Act to amend the Laws of the Customs in South Australia,” is hereby repealed, except so far as relates to anything lawfully done, or commenced, or contracted to be done before the commencement of this Act, and except so far as may be necessary to enable any punishment to be inflicted or penalty enforced for anything contrary to the provisions of the said Act, and also except as to any arrears of duty, or duty, or drawback due or payable at any time before the passing of this Act under the provisions of the said Act hereby repealed. Repeal of Act No. 6 of 1863.

2. In lieu of and instead of all other duties of Customs, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid unto Her Majesty for the uses of the said Province and support of the Government thereof, the several duties of Customs inserted, described, and set forth in the Schedule hereto annexed, and no other: Provided always that the duties on spirits in case shall be collected in the manner provided by the said Act hereby repealed until the expiration of six calendar months from the passing of this Act. Duties.

Tariff Act.—1870.

Indemnity to Collector of Customs.

3. The Collector of Customs, and all officers of Customs in the said Province, shall not be liable to and are hereby indemnified and protected against any action, claim, or damages to which he or they might otherwise have been liable by reason of any refusal to deliver any goods imported into the said Province after the seventh day of September, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, or in bond on that day, without payment of the duties by this Act authorized to be levied, or without payment of the duties authorized to be levied by any Act in force within the said Province at the time of the coming into operation of this Act.

Bonded Warehouses to pay an annual fee.

4. The proprietor or occupier of any bonded warehouse, or baggage warehouse, which has heretofore been or shall hereafter be appointed for the free warehousing and securing of goods under the provisions of "The Customs Act, 1864," shall pay for each and every year, or proportional part of a year, after the coming into operation of this Act, during which such appointment shall be in force, the sum of Fifty Pounds, or a proportional part thereof, for each bonded warehouse situated in Adelaide or Port Adelaide, and Twenty Pounds for each bonded warehouse in any other part of the said Province.

In the name and on behalf of the Queen I hereby assent to this Act.

JAMES FERGUSSON, Governor.
