

ANNO TRICESIMO TERTIO ET TRICESIMO QUARTO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

A.D. 1870-71.

No. 18.

An Act for preventing the Proclamation of certain Counties and Hundreds.

[Assented to, 13th January, 1871.]

WHEREAS certain lists of Counties and Hundreds, intended Preamble. to be proclaimed under the provisions of Act No. 6 of 1861, were, on the sixteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, laid by mistake before Parliament: And whereas it is not expedient that such Counties and Hundreds should be so proclaimed at present: And whereas the aforesaid lists having remained before Parliament for fourteen days, in pursuance of the said Act, it is desirable to set at rest all questions as to the effect thereof: Be it therefore Enacted by the Governor of the Province of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly of the said Province, in this present Parliament assembled, as follows:

1. The lists of intended Counties and Hundreds laid before Parliament on the sixteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, shall, for the intents and purposes of the said Act, No. 6 of 1861, be deemed to be, and to have been, from that date wholly devoid of validity, and the fact of such lists having been laid before Parliament for fourteen days in pursuance of the said Act, shall not be taken to authorize the proclamation by the Governor of the Counties and Hundreds, or any of them in such lists respectively mentioned, the provisions of the said Act notwithstanding.

Lists laid before Parliament on 16th June 1870, invalid, and Counties and Hundreds not to be proclaimed in pursuance of same.

In the name and on behalf of the Queen I hereby assent to this Act.

JAMES FERGUSSON, Governor.
