

ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO QUARTO ET QUINQUAGESIMO QUINTO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

A.D. 1891.

*****

No. 534.

An Act to continue the "Chinese Immigration Restriction Act, 1888."

[Assented to, December 19th, 1891.]

WHEREAS it is desirable to continue the operation of the "Chinese Immigration Restriction Act, 1888"—Be it therefore Enacted by the Governor of the Province of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly of the said province, in this present Parliament assembled, as follows: Preamble.

1. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in section 18 of the said "Chinese Immigration Restriction Act, 1888," and section 1 of the Act No. 494 of 1890, to further amend the "Chinese Immigration Restriction Act, 1888," the said "Chinese Immigration Restriction Act, 1888," except as hereby altered, shall continue in full force and operation until altered or repealed. Act No. 439 of 1888 to continue in force.

2. None of the provisions of the "Chinese Immigration Act of 1888" shall apply to any Chinese who have been, before the first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, naturalised as British subjects in South Australia, or in any other Australasian colony which may afford similar privileges to Chinese naturalised in South Australia or to the wife of any such Chinese. Act not to apply to naturalised Chinese.

3. This Act shall be incorporated and read as one with the "Chinese Incorporation.

---

Chinese Immigration Restriction Act.—1891.

---

“Chinese Immigration Restriction Act, 1888,” except so far as inconsistent therewith.

In the name and on behalf of Her Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

KINTORE, Governor.