

ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO SECUNDO ET QUINQUAGESIMO TERTIO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

A.D. 1889.

No. 469.

An Act to alter the Hours of Voting at Parliamentary Elections.

[Assented to, December 6th, 1889.]

BE it Enacted by the Governor of the Province of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly of the said Province, in this present Parliament assembled, as follows, that is to say:

1. At all elections of members to serve in the Parliament of South Australia, the polling-booths shall be open to the public and to voters at eight o'clock in the forenoon, and shall continue so open until all the votes of electors present in the polling-booth at the hour of seven o'clock in the evening shall have been taken, and shall then finally close.

Alteration of hour for opening and closing polling-booths

2. This Act shall be incorporated with "The Electoral Act, 1879," and the Acts amending the same, which shall hereinafter be read and construed as if the hours for the opening and closing of polling-booths fixed by this Act were fixed by the said Acts.

Incorporation.

In the name and on behalf of Her Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

KINTORE, Governor.
