

ANNO VICESIMO SECUNDO

GEORGII V REGIS.

A.D. 1931.

No. 2053.

An Act relating to the South Australian Government Labour Exchange.

[Assented to, December 9th, 1931.]

BE it Enacted by the Governor of the State of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Parliament thereof, as follows :

1. This Act may be cited as the " Government Labour Exchange Act, 1931 ". Short title.

2. If any person is, for the purpose of enabling him to proceed to any employment obtained through the agency of or by means of the South Australian Government Labour Exchange, supplied by any officer of the said Exchange with any ticket for the purpose of enabling the said person to travel to the place of employment by railway, coach, steamer, or otherwise, and the said person— Penalty for falsely obtaining fare.

- (a) uses the said ticket for any purpose other than the purpose for which it is supplied to him ; or
- (b) after using the said ticket fails within a reasonable time to commence work at such employment ; or
- (c) in any manner disposes of the said ticket,

the said person shall be guilty of an offence punishable summarily and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Five Pounds.

3. (1) If for the purpose of securing employment for any person through the agency of or by means of the South Australia Government Labour Exchange, or for the purpose of securing the inclusion Penalty for making false statement.

Government Labour Exchange Act.—1931.

of any name in any register or list of persons desiring employment kept in or in connection with the said Exchange, any person wilfully makes any false statement to any officer of the said Exchange, such person shall be guilty of an offence punishable summarily and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Five Pounds.

(2) Any such statement shall be deemed to be made to such an officer if made orally or if included in any writing delivered to such officer.

In the name and on behalf of His Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

A. HORE-RUTHVEN, Governor.