ANNO TRICESIMO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

A.D. 1866-7.

No. 28.

An Act to provide for the augmentation of the Governor's Salary.

[Reserved, 11th January, 1867.]

WHEREAS by the Constitution Act, No. 2 of 1855-6, it was Preamble.
amongst other things declared and ordered that there should be payable to Her Majesty, in every year, the several sums specified in the Civil List to the said Act annexed: And whereas the salary payable to the Governor, by the said Civil List, is Four Thousand Pounds per annum: And whereas the said salary is incommensurate with the duties and responsibilities of the Representative of Her Majesty in the Province of South Australia; and it is therefore expedient that the said salary should be augmented as hereinafter provided—Be it therefore enacted, by the Governor-in-Chief of the Province of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly of the said Province, in this present Parliament assembled, as follows:

1. There shall be payable to Her Majesty, every year, out of the Consolidated Revenues of this Province, in addition to the said sum of Four Thousand Pounds reserved to Her Majesty in the Civil List to the said Act annexed, the further sum set forth in the Schedule hereunto annexed. £1,000 payable to Her Majesty in addition to £4,000 as salary of Governor.

2. The said sum of One Thousand Pounds shall be payable from the first day of January, 1866. £1,000 payable from 1st January, 1866.

3. This Act may be cited as the "Governor's Salary Act, 1866." Short title.

I hereby reserve this Act for the signification of the Queen's pleasure thereon.

D. DALY, Governor.
