

ANNO DUODECIMO

GEORGII V REGIS.

A.D. 1921.

No. 1468.

An Act to authorise the Use of a certain portion of Colley Reserve at Glenelg as a Site for a Soldiers' Memorial, and for other purposes.

• [Assented to, November 23rd, 1921.]

WHEREAS by Land Grant (for Public Reserve) Register Book, Preamble. volume CCXV., folio 236, certain pieces of land situated in the Town of Glenelg, Hundred of Noarlunga, County of Adelaide (including the piece of land delineated and shown on the plan in the Schedule hereto and therein hatched in black, which said piece of land is portion of the reserve at Glenelg known as "Colley Reserve"), were granted unto the Corporation of the Town of Glenelg, together with all timber, materials, and appurtenances, to hold unto the said Corporation and their successors in trust to permit and suffer the said pieces of land to be used at all times as places for the recreation and amusement of the inhabitants of the Corporation of the Town of Glenelg, and for no other purpose whatsoever: And whereas it is now desired to authorise and permit the use of the piece of land delineated and shown on the plan in the Schedule hereto, and therein hatched in black, as a site for a memorial to soldiers and sailors who died in the war which commenced in the year nineteen hundred and fourteen—

Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of the State of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Parliament thereof, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited as the "Glenelg Soldiers' Memorial Short title. Site Act, 1921."

2. (1) Notwithstanding

Glenelg Soldiers' Memorial Site Act.—1921.

Portion of Colley Reserve may be used as site for soldiers' memorial.

2. (1) Notwithstanding any Act or law to the contrary, and notwithstanding anything contained in any grant of the land hereinafter mentioned—

(a) it shall be lawful for the Corporation of the Town of Glenelg to use, or to permit and suffer to be used, the piece of land situated in the Town of Glenelg, Hundred of Noarlunga, County of Adelaide, being portion of the reserve at Glenelg known as "Colley Reserve," which said piece of land is more particularly delineated and shown on the plan in the Schedule hereto, and therein hatched in black, as a site for a memorial, or part of a memorial, in honor of, or to perpetuate the memory of, soldiers and sailors who served in the war which commenced in the year nineteen hundred and fourteen, or who died in such war; and

(b) from the commencement of the erection of such memorial the Corporation of the Town of Glenelg, and the Council thereof, shall not be bound to permit and suffer the said piece of land to be used at all times as a place for the recreation and amusement of the inhabitants of the Municipality of the said Corporation.

(2) Such memorial may take such form as the Council of the said Corporation may determine.

(3) The said memorial, when erected, shall vest in the said Corporation and shall be maintained by the Council of the said Corporation out of its own moneys. Any rents or other income derived from the said memorial shall be payable to the said Council and shall form part of the revenue of the said Corporation.

In the name and on behalf of His Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

W. E. G. A. WEIGALL, Governor.
