No. 121.

An Act to authorise the construction of a Tank, Well, and other works, for the purpose of increasing the Supply of Water to the District of Glenelg.

[Assented to, 30th November, 1878.]

WHEREAS it is desirable to authorise the construction of a tank, well, and other works for the purpose of increasing the supply of water to the District of Glenelg, according as the said district is defined in the Schedule hereto: And whereas plans and sections showing the source of supply and the said tank, well, and other works, and the direction of the main and branch pipes, and the streets and grounds through which they are to be laid, and also books of reference containing the names of the owners and occupiers, or reputed owners or occupiers (so far as known), of any private lands on which the said tank, well, or other works will be constructed, or through which the same will pass, have been deposited in the office of the Surveyor-General, at Adelaide—Be it therefore Enacted by the Governor of the Province of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly of the said province, in this present Parliament assembled, as follows:

1. The Commissioner of Waterworks may construct, out of any moneys which have been or hereafter may be voted by Parliament for such purpose, the tank, well, and other works, in accordance with the said plans and sections deposited in the office of the Surveyor-General, at Adelaide.

Commissioner of Waterworks may construct tank, well, and other works.

2. If any error, omission, misstatement, or wrong description shall have been made of any lands or streams, or of the owners

Errors and omissions in plans, &c., may be corrected by Justices, &c.

or

or occupiers, or reputed owners or occupiers, of any lands or streams delineated or shown on the said plans or sections, described in the books of reference deposited as aforesaid, the Commissioner of Waterworks, after giving ten days' notice to the owners or occupiers, or reputed owners or occupiers, of the lands and streams affected or likely to be affected by the correction of such error, omission, misstatement, or wrong description, may apply to two justices to correct the same; and, if it shall appear to such justices that it is expedient and not unjust to correct such error, omission, misstatement, or wrong description, they shall give the said Commissioner a certificate in such form as they shall think proper, and shall in such certificate state the particulars of any such error, omission, misstatement, or wrong description; and such certificate, with the documents to which it refers, shall be deposited with the other documents to which they refer, in the office of the Surveyor-General, and thereupon such plans, sections, or books of reference shall be deemed to be corrected according to such certificate, and the said Commissioner may make, complete, extend, and maintain the works hereby authorised, in accordance with such certificate, as if such error, omission, misstatement, or wrong description had not been made.

Surveyor-General to receive plans and allow inspection.

3. The Surveyor-General shall keep the said plans and sections, and books of reference, and all other documents deposited with him, for the purposes of this Act, and shall allow all persons interested to inspect any of the documents aforesaid, and to make copies and extracts of and from the same.

Interpretation.

4. In the construction of, and for the purposes of this Act and "The Adelaide City, Port, and Suburban Waterworks Act, 1874," when not inconsistent with the context, the expression, the "undertaking" shall, in addition to the meaning assigned thereto by the said "The Adelaide City, Port, and Suburban Waterworks Act, 1874," mean and include the well, tank, and other works hereby authorised to be constructed; the expression "lands and streams" shall, in addition to the meaning assigned thereto by the said Act, mean and include the land and streams of water hereby authorised to be taken or used for the purposes hereof, and the expression "water area" shall, in addition to the meaning assigned thereto by the said Act, mean and include the district of Glenelg, according as the same is defined in the schedule hereto.

Short title.

5. This Act may be cited for all purposes as "The Glenelg Waterworks Act, 1878."

Incorporation

6. Except so far as the same is inconsistent with or altered by this Act, this Act and "The Adelaide City, Port, and Suburban Waterworks Act," shall be incorporated and read as one Act.

In the name and on behalf of Her Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

WM. F. DRUMMOND JERVOIS, Governor.
