

ANNO VICESIMO OCTAVO ET VICESIMO NONO.

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

A.D. 1865.

No. 3.

An Act to make better provision for payment of Jurors in Criminal Cases.

[Assented to, 4th August, 1865.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Jury Act, 1862, by Preamble.
making provision for the payment of Jurors attending at the Criminal Sittings of the Supreme Court—Be it therefore Enacted, by the Governor-in-Chief of the Province of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly of the said Province, in this present Parliament assembled, as follows:

1. Section 46 of the Jury Act, 1862, is hereby repealed.

Repeal.

2. Every Juryman summoned, who shall attend at any Court of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, whether holden at Adelaide or elsewhere, who shall not claim exemption to be allowed by the Court, shall be entitled to receive, as compensation for his expenses for every day on which such Juryman shall be present and punctual in his attendance, whether called in any case or not, such sum as for the time being shall be allowed by law to witnesses for the prosecution attending at the Criminal Sittings aforesaid; and also a further sum for mileage, upon the same scale as shall for the time being be allowed to witnesses as aforesaid; and such sums shall be paid out of the General Revenue of the Province.

Provision for payment of Jurors attending at Criminal Sittings.
