VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

A.D. 1898.

No. 710.

An Act relating to the Licensing of Hawkers.

[Assented to, December 23rd, 1898.]

BE it Enacted by the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Parliament of South Australia, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited as "The Licensed Hawkers Amendment Act, 1898," and shall be incorporated with the "Licensed Hawkers Act, 1863." Short title and incorporation.

2. The whole of the paragraphs of section 290 of "The District Councils Act, 1887," and of section 314 of "The Municipal Corporations Act, 1890," commencing "For licensing hawkers" are hereby repealed, but so that any licence granted thereunder before the first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight, shall continue until the period of its expiration, not exceeding one year from the granting thereof. Repeal.

3. The fees for hawkers' licences under the "Licensed Hawkers Act, 1863," shall be as stated in the Schedule hereto in lieu of the fees fixed by the said Act. Fees for licences.

4. No hawker's licence shall hereafter be issued to any alien except on proof to the satisfaction of the licensing authority that such alien has a sufficient knowledge of the English language for the exercise of the trade of a hawker, and that he has resided in South Australia for at least two years. Licences to aliens.

5. Any

Power to make by-laws.

Proviso.

5. Any Municipal Corporation or District Council may make by-laws for licensing hawkers trading within any such municipality or district, fixing the fees to be paid for licences and preventing hawking by unlicensed persons: Provided that no licence shall be required to enable any person to hawk vegetables, fruit, or dairy produce of their own production, or fish, and no licence issued by any Municipal Corporation or District Council shall have any force beyond the boundaries of the municipality or district by whom it is issued. The amount to be paid for a hawker's licence under any by-law shall not exceed one-fourth of the fees set out in the Schedule hereto.

Treasurer's licence to prevail in Corporations and District Councils.

6. Every licence issued by the Treasurer shall be of full force and validity in every Municipal Corporation and District Council, notwithstanding such corporation or council shall have made a by-law as aforesaid.

Fees to go to District Councils and municipalities.

7. The fees for hawkers' licences issued by the Treasurer shall be annually divided among the District Councils and Municipalities in proportions determined by the amount of rates collected in each. The amount to be divided shall be ascertained as on the thirtieth day of June in each year.

In the name and on behalf of Her Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

S. J. WAY, Lieutenant-Governor.
