

ANNO TRICESIMO NONO ET QUADRAGESIMO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

A.D. 1876.

---

---

No. 33.

An Act to amend Act No. 16 of 1872, intituled "An Act to provide for the Carrying of Lights by Vehicles at night."

[Assented to 20th September, 1876.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend so much of Act No. 16 of 1872, as fixes the limits within which lights are to be carried by vehicles at night—Be it Enacted by the Governor of the Province of South Australia, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly of the said Province, in Parliament assembled, as follows: Preamble.

1. The provisions of Act No. 16 of 1872 shall extend to all main roads within the Province and cross roads within fifty miles of the City of Adelaide, to all streets and roads within any corporate town, and to all cross roads within ten miles of any corporate town. Further extension of Act No. 16 of 1872.

2. Clause 1 of the said Act shall be read and construed as if the words "and the two nights immediately following the night of the full moon" in the sixth and seventh lines of the said clause had been omitted therefrom. Lights to be carried after full moon.

3. Every person offending against any provision of the said Act, who shall refuse, on demand, to give to any officer of any Corporation, District Council, or Road Board, or to any police constable his name, and address, may be apprehended without warrant by such officer or police constable, and conveyed to the nearest police station, there to be detained until such time as he may be brought before a Special Magistrate or two Justices of the Peace. Offender to give name and address.

4. This Act shall take effect and come into force on the first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six. Commencement of Act.

In the name and on behalf of Her Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

A. MUSGRAVE, Governor.