

ANNO SEXAGESIMO ET SEXAGESIMO PRIMO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

A.D. 1897.

No. 677.

An Act to amend "The Pharmacy Act of 1891."

[Assented to, December 11th, 1897.]

BE it Enacted by the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Parliament of South Australia, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited as "The Pharmacy Act Amendment Act, 1897," and shall be incorporated with "The Pharmacy Act of 1891," hereinafter called the principal Act.

Short title and incorporation.

2. No pharmaceutical chemist shall carry on business as or assume or use the title of pharmaceutical or dispensing chemist or druggist, or use or exhibit any title, term, or sign which may be construed to mean that he is a registered or dispensing chemist or druggist, except during the currency of a certificate granted to him under section 20 of the principal Act; and every pharmaceutical chemist who shall be guilty of any contravention of this section shall be liable to a penalty of not exceeding Ten Pounds.

Chemists not to carry on business without certificate.

3. Section 18 of the principal Act shall be read as if the words "who have taken out certificates under section 20 for the current year" were inserted therein between the words "chemists" and "in" in the third line of the said last-mentioned section.

Amendment of section 18 of Pharmacy Act of 1891.

4. No pharmaceutical chemist shall carry on business as a pharmaceutical or dispensing chemist or druggist in more than one shop or place of business unless there shall be constantly and exclusively employed at each such shop or place of business at least one pharmaceutical chemist holding a current certificate granted under section

Branch businesses.

The Pharmacy Act Amendment Act.—1897.

section 20 of the principal Act; and no person shall manage the shop, or business, or branch business of a pharmaceutical or dispensing chemist or druggist unless he holds a current certificate under section 20 aforesaid; and every pharmaceutical chemist or person who shall be guilty of any contravention of this section shall be liable to a penalty of not exceeding Twenty Pounds.

In the name and on behalf of Her Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

T. F. BUXTON, Governor.
